This is the latest in new water wells for Daly City. Completed at a cost of $13,500 the well is located at Junipero Serra boulevard near Citrus. Within the next 30 days it will be supplying Daly City with water at a maximum rate of 1,000 gallons a minute. In the background can be seen the 50 foot derrick which drove a pipe down 522 feet to water. Standing by the well during the 48 hour test run were: left to right, Councilman Fred Bertetta; J. N. Pitcher, master well digger, and an unidentified Pitcher employee. (Photo by Myra)

JEFF HIGH EXPANSION

Enrollment To Hit 1,000 Mark By 1951; Officials Will Plan Additional Building

Additional classrooms to accommodate an ever increasing enrollment will be needed at Jefferson High school within the next two years.

This was the announcement of Stanford Hannah, district superintendent, today.

Basis for his conclusion is the estimate that by fall of 1951 the enrollment of Jefferson High school will reach an all-time high of 1,000 students. The ever increasing population in this area accounts for the aforesaid estimate.

"That number of students is going to jam the high school," Hannah said.

Presently there are 850 students attending the Daly City high school. Of these, 130 will graduate in June. However, approximately 240 freshmen will enter the institution next fall, to bring the enrollment well past the 900 mark.

The entering class of September, 1951, is expected to exceed 350 students. And this is only the beginning of a tremendous increase in the size of the local high school, Hannah said.

Aware of the condition which may leave many students without proper facilities, Hannah and the board of trustees will soon discuss additional building at the high school.

No indication of what this building will encompass in cost and amount was forthcoming from Hannah.

"It will be approximately another two years before any building begins," Hannah said.

Only last month, the Jefferson elementary school district announced it will soon request voters to approve a bond issue for construction of six new schools in the Daly City area.

However, Hannah said the high school building program will in no way interfere with the elementary school project.

Breaking down the present enrollment at Jefferson, classes are

Red Cross Fund Raising Drive Opens In Daly City

Under the direction of Chairman Joseph Lewkowicz and Co-chairman Mrs. Floyd Harris the $2,000 Daly City Red Cross fund raising campaign opens here Friday, February 24.

This year the Red Cross is asking everyone to "Give Where You Live," as many people work in San Francisco, but live in Daly City. Those who give in the Bay City may stipulate that part of their donation go to Daly City.

Quota for San Mateo as a whole is $108,000. Of this, approximately 26 cents of each dollar goes to National Red Cross for national emergencies and other disasters. The remaining money is kept in San Mateo county for the direct benefit of local residents.

During the coming weeks, volunteers will call on YOU to give, in order that Daly City may reach its quota. Be sure to assist them in any way possible, Grant Williams, publicity chairman said.

Meanwhile, this week end has been designated as Red Cross sabbath and Sunday by George C. Marshall, president of the American Red Cross.

Observance of the two special days in churches and synagogues throughout the nation precedes the opening of the annual campaign which will continue through to March 31.

It is traditional among clergymen of all faiths, General Marshall said, to call attention on

City Considers Trash Burning Petition

Still under consideration of the city today is a petition signed by 70 residents near Westlake avenue demanding a certain day and time be set for burning rubbish in Daly City.

The petition was submitted three months ago and turned over to Frank Blum, city attorney, to see whether or not an ordinance could be drawn up to satisfy the petitioners, Mayor Paul Green declared.

A representative of the petitioners stated he would be present at the city council meeting this Monday night to ask the councilmen what has happened to the petition.

Mayor Green said he could sympathize with the signers, but he wasn't certain just how such an ordinance could be fairly enforced.

"We can regulate the time and day for burning rubbish, but it may hurt more people than it will help. We'll have to look into the issue further, before taking any definite action."

A consensus of opinion of several persons contacted by the editor indicates that they have the same doubts as the mayor.

Democratic Club Organization Meet

An organizational meeting of the Roosevelt - Helen Gahagan - Johnson club will be held this Friday, February 24, at 8 p.m. at 40 Mission circle.

At that time members and leaders of the group will discuss methods of carrying on the Democratic political campaign in northern San Mateo county during the coming elections.

Principal speakers and officials to be present will include: Julius Castelan, Frank Kent and George Wheeler.

All those interested in the Democratic party and the election are asked to be present.

Anyone Here Seen Some Stray Lumber?

With all the building going on around Daly City, some unidentified persons have been profiting by stealing lumber from construction piles.

Latest outbreak of this kind of theft happened over the week end between Bellevue and Crocker where Joe Huber, 119 Vale street, is putting up some homes.

Huber reports thieves carried off several pieces of 2x10 and 2x4, evidently for building purposes of their own.

CONCORDIA BIDS CUT

Change In Sewer Pipe Brings Assessment District Costs Down

Cutting down on sewer pipe, the city council lopped approximately $7,000 off the lowest Concordia assessment district bid Monday night to bring cost of the project down to $95,000.

This move was necessitated after bids were opened February 14 and they were found to be from 10 to 20 per cent higher than expected. With the change in sewer connections, the lowest bidder is still Fay Improvement Co., San Francisco.

The change consists of using one sewer lateral for two lots, instead of a lateral for each lot. Ed Smith, consulting engineer, said this would make no difference to residents either in sewer service or efficiency.

Residents present at the informal Monday night meeting seemed to be in accord with Smith's plan, and agreed it was the best method of bringing the Fay bid down to original estimates.

Councilman A. J. Gaggero said he had contacted Fay Improvement, and they agreed to the change. Therefore, with the approval of bonds for the job, the contract will probably be let Monday night, or a few days later, to the Fay Improvement Co., Gaggero said.

However, Gaggero asked all interested Concordia residents to be present at the regular city council meeting Monday night, as at that time the last public hearing on the assessment district will be held.

While the informal meeting was called only to discuss the bids, mention was made of the Starlight Theatre question. O. J. Speelman, 201 Bellevue, said he would ask the council to go on record Monday night as against the theatre's use of Lowell street.

(At a caucus meeting February 6, the city council denied the theatre the use of Lowell as an exit, Mayor Paul Green earlier reported.)

George Is Simply Wild About Possum

Some people are "just crazy" about animals. George Constantine, 21, 973 Hanover street, is no exception.

Last week he called the "Record" to inquire about obtaining a large possum, whose picture he'd seen on page 8. A woman in Hillside was anxious to get rid of the gray-furred animal, and George was eager to accommodate.

However, just before we printed the picture the woman in the east managed to find a home for her unwanted pet. But we promised to do what we could for George.

Anyone in Daly City who has a wornout, or young possum taking up an extra corner in the house, and is anxious to get rid of him, or her, or it, please call George at Juniper 4-9739.

But in all fairness the reader must be warned that George has a peculiar love for 'possum.

"I just love to pop them into a pot. They are most delicious eating," George said.

Lions Annual Show Coming Here May 3

May 3 is the tentative date of the annual Daly City Lions Club show, an official announced today.

Although two months away, Lions were busy today lining up entertainment for the giant event. As usual the show is to be held in the Daly City Theatre.

This year the Lions hope to show a first class movie and feature several big names in vaudeville. Further details will be published from time to time in the "Record."

Meanwhile, an official said today that tickets for the event will go on sale soon.

Send Us Your News And Pictures; We Will Print Them

Outside of air, the freest thing in Daly City is publicity in the Daly City Record.

We are glad, in fact anxious, to publish any news of an organization or individual in the community. Why not let us serve you and your group of friends.

Merely call Juniper 7-4321 or bring your news to the "Record" office, 3317 San Jose avenue. And remember pictures are also welcomed.

We thank Bethel No. 26 for this kind letter:

Dear Madam:
I should like to take this opportunity to thank you for your splendid cooperation. Bethel 26 has never before had such wonderful publicity. The picture that appeared in your February 2 issue was grand. . . .

Gas Station Thief Takes Gas Motor

Somebody today is probably running a washing machine or a motor bike with a $75 gas engine stolen last Thursday evening from the Poly Gas station, 6755 Mission.

Police report the engine was taken from a battery charger that the management had left in the lot next to the station. The engine was used to power the charger.

Officers believe the thief either sold the motor, or is using it today to run some household appliance.

Officer Linhares Injured Monday In Auto Accident

Recovering from ankle injuries today is Officer Arthur G. Linhares, 39, 60 Shakespeare street, who was dragged from an overturned police car Monday morning.

The police officer was in pursuit of an unidentified speeder on Hillside boulevard and passing Seimi Pietro, 446 Lux avenue, South San Francisco, when Pietro allegedly swerved to make a left turn. The force of the collision drove the police car across the road, and it overturned on the soft shoulder near Lisbon street.

Pietro was uninjured, although his car will need extensive repairs on the left side, police say.

Dragged from the wreckage of the police car, Linhares was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital where he was treated for abrasions and a sprain of his left ankle, hospital authorities report.

As the accident happened just outside the city limits, county officers are handling the case. Chief of Police W. W. Sunderland reports Pietro will be charged with failure to heed a siren, failure to make a hand signal, and an improper turn.

Allegedly Pietro struck the police car when he was attempting to make a left turn into Lisbon off of Hillside, police say.

Police list the car in which Linhares was riding as a "total loss."

"There she blows!"

So yelled J. N. Pitcher, 7108 Mission, this week. But he wasn't in the bow of a whaling vessel, in stead he was standing on the firm ground of Junipero Serra boulevard near Citrus.

Pitcher had brought in another water well for Daly City, the fifth to soon serve local residents. Standing back from a 50-foot rigging, Pitcher watched the water gush out of the earth. It was coming at the rate of 1,000 gallons a minute. . . . almost enough to serve every man and woman in the community each day of the year from now until eternity or H-Bomb day.

Within the next 30 days the well will be connected via 600 feet of pipe and a pump, with the Citrus street water works. While the well will serve only Daly City now, it may well be a source of supply to Westlake in the near future, a city official indicated.

Pitcher is an old hand at digging wells. He's been at it in Daly City since 1934. Then there were nine wells, but they only gave about half the water the five give today.

"It's the kind of well you sink that matters," Pitcher explained. "Here, we've got what is known as a Cable Tool Gravel pack well. . . . one of the best."

This type gets its name from the tons of gravel, 125 in this case, used to pack around the 24- and 14-inch pipe sunk into the earth. The gravel acts as a filter, blocking sand that might clog up the pipes.

The shaft on the Junipero Serra well is down 522 feet, and according to Pitcher it is deep enough to pump water for generations to come.

"Most of Daly City is sitting on a kind of sponge," Pitcher said. "The sand under the ground holds on to the water, and all we have to do is go after it."

And the H2O in this area is almost 99 per cent pure, Pitcher said. It can be used in automobile batteries.

Decision On Five Day Week Coming

Mayor Paul Green said today that some time next week the city council will take action on city employees' request for a five day week.

At the present time many city workers are putting in from 44 to 48 hours each week. They have requested the 40 hour week, and five days of work.

Should the council grant their request, the water department and other offices now open on Saturday mornings would be open as in the past.

Meanwhile, employees of three of South San Francisco's city departments have also requested a 40 hour week. Asking for the reduction are police officers, street department workers and fire department employees.

Bouncing Baby Boy Joins Mayor's Family

Joining the family of Mayor Paul Green and wife this week was an 8-pound baby boy, born at Children's Hospital at 7:15 p.m. Monday.

This is the third child for the Greens. Mayor Green has another son, Jimmy, 5, and a daughter, Susan, 3. The family has named the new boy Stephen Patrick.

The beaming father reported Tuesday that mother and son were doing nicely and, "I am slowly recovering."

Running on a three man ticket, incumbents A. J. Gaggero, Paul Green, and a newcomer to politics, J. H. Kennedy, will seek positions on the city council April 11, they announced today.

Opposing the trio will be incumbent Mel Battye and Hugh H. Smith Jr. There is also supposed to be a third man on this team, but he has not yet filed.

James Reardon, former Daly City police chief, will seek a council seat as an independent candidate.

To date no others have taken out nomination papers for the election. City Clerk B. C. Ross reports. Candidates have until noon March 2 to file their intention to take part in the April municipal elections.

The three newest candidates made their announcement today in a circular letter distributed throughout Daly City. All have attended local public schools and spent most of their lives in Daly City.

Mayor Green, 34, was elected to the city council in 1946, and one and one-half years ago took over the mayors gavel from Gaggero. He is a real estate and insurance broker.

A veteran of World War II, Mayor Green enlisted as a private in 1941 and rose to the rank of Major in the Army Transportation Corps.

During his term of office Mayor Green has actively sponsored such improvements as the annexation of Westlake and the September, 1949, recreation bond issue.

Mayor Green is married to the former Patricia Murray and resides at 183 East Vista avenue with three children. (The third child, an 8 pound bouncing boy, joined the family Monday.)

A. J. Gaggero, 41, has been a councilman for the past eight years and until he turned over the mayorship to Green, was one of Daly City's most popular mayors. Always active in civic affairs, he has given continued support to the council's program of civic improvements.

An insurance broker, Gaggero married to the former Eleanor Pasini, has three children, and resides at 6 W. Cavour street. He is a member of the county Civil Service Commission and director of the County Fiesta Commission.

The third man on the ticket, James H. Kennedy, 34, is a newcomer to politics. He is the son of a pioneer Daly City family and is presently employed as a sales manager, supervising salesmen in San Mateo county.

An active supporter of the city council's program, Kennedy lives with his wife, the former Gladys Oakley, and two children at 6893 Mission street.

The three were prime movers behind the city's recreation bond issue and have pushed progress on the project so that it is expected construction on the $295,000 War Memorial community center building will begin this spring, with grading work on new park locations scheduled for March or April.

Cemetery May "Move Into" San Bruno

Reported plans of the army to expand Golden Gate cemetery in a southwesterly direction toward San Bruno has city officials concerned.

The city plans to use the proposed cemetery land for residential and schoolhouse development.

While the army has not indicated what acreage the cemetery expansion would include, it has indicated there is no other place to go but toward San Bruno.

San Bruno officials said they would fight the army plan.

Poisoner Kills 10 Dogs In Two Cities

Handy with strychnine, an unidentified person poisoned 10 dogs over the week end in San Carlos and San Mateo.

No cases of dog poisoning were reported in Daly City.

All of the dog deaths took place in the same general neighborhoods, and police today were trying to trace the poison through drug stores.

Pet owners are advised to call the Daly City police immediately if they notice their dog becoming ill.

teries, and almost everything, except steam irons. (As noted in the "Record" of February 9.)

Now that the $14,000 Daly City well is completed, Pitcher is off to Central America.

"I spend about half my time down there," he asserted. "Those people are really in need of water."

The writer didn't have time to ask Pitcher about the revolutions, as the well digger returned to his rigging. The 48-hour pumping test was almost over, and it was time to shut down the pumps.

For the record, the well was tested for 48 hours to insure it was working properly. During that time, this writer estimates 2,880,000 gallons of water poured into the sewer and out to the ocean. But there's plenty more where that came from, which may be a hint to New York industrialists, money wise but water short.

Concordia Bids

ported.) Another "feature" of the meeting was the request of a resident at the furthestmost extension of Bellevue avenue for improvement of that section of Bellevue east of Gutterburg to the San Francisco county line.

Gaggero said he would look into the request, and if the seven residents on the Daly City side of the avenue wished the extension of the assessment district, the city would comply. However, this will mean acquiring the right to assess San Francisco residents on the north side of the unimproved avenue, which is little more than a formalities.

When signatures from all interested residents in the area have been acquired, the city will merely add on the unit cost of the additional paving, sewers and so forth to the original Concordia district. This will not mean any higher assessments for residents included in the original Concordia district, Gaggero stressed.

Tombstones Find Rest On Two Doorsteps

Don't be surprised if you wake up some morning and find a Chinese tombstone on your doorstep.

This week two headstones were left at homes in Millbrae and Burlingame, respectively. While one of the markers had a name clearly printed in English, the other stuck to Chinese.

Consequently, police today are trying to find someone who can decipher the tombstone so they can return it to the rightful owner.

banks in the township. Superior Court Judge Aylett Cotton, and numerous other civic-minded people of the township.

In announcing his candidacy, Bocci said, it elected:

"I will continue to run this office on the same high plane, and with the same judicial integrity that Judge Fahey imparted to the position for over 10 years."

"As both an attorney and a parent, I am aware of the need for active participation in civic and municipal affairs, particularly in those programs designed to curb juvenile delinquency."

Born and raised in Colma, Bocci is the son of Thomas Bocci, owner and manager of a furniture factory in Colma. A graduate of Jefferson elementary school, Bocci obtained his high school education at St. Ignace in San Francisco.

Upon graduating from the University of San Francisco, the Daly City man entered the university of San Francisco law school where he was graduated with honors in 1946.

Since June, 1946, Bocci has been practicing law with the firm of Bocci, Bocci and Gallen, who maintain offices both in Daly City and South San Francisco.

Bocci resides at 10 Village Lane, Garden Village, with his wife, the former Melania Bertolotti, and two children, Deborah and Thomas.

Bocci is presently president of the Young Men's Institute and vice-president of the Businessmen's Association of South San Francisco, and grand officer of the Grand Grove of Druids of California, having membership in the South San Francisco Druid Order.

He is also past treasurer of the Sons of Italy and past secretary of the Boosters of South San Francisco. Also he is a member of the Redmen of South San Francisco, the Italian-American Club of Daly City and the Foresters of Daly City.

Bill Wilson Appointed Acting Fair Manager

The San Mateo County Fair Association announces the appointment of William M. Wilson as acting manager. He will also continue to serve in his present capacity of controller.

During the 18 months of his association with the county fair, Wilson has demonstrated an infinite capacity for work. He is meticulous as to detail and fully familiar with the requirements and responsibilities of the office.

His apprenticeship has been served. He will be able to proceed with a minimum of orientation to oblige the many requirements mandated by the State director of finance and the Division of Fairs and Expositions. His acquaintance with the growers and exhibitors is a very great asset.

Rita Leonard, Harold Bocci Exchange Vows

By Mrs. Lillian Bertucci

Sunday, February 19, at 2:30 p.m. Rita Leonard of 634 Green avenue, San Bruno, became the bride of Harold Bocci of Colma at St. Bruno's Church. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bocci.

The lovely Rita was given proudly in marriage by her father, George Leonard.

She was wearing a majestic looking white gown with a finger tip veil and a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of butterfly orchids and white carnations, truly a beautiful sight to behold.

Her maid of honor, Jean Cure, wore a gold-colored oil-the-shoulder gown and carried a heart-shaped frame decorated with butterflies, and sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Janet Kirkland, wore a forest-green gown and carried the same kind of bouquet as the maid of honor.

Swarming up with the happy groom was the best man, Nathan Agness, and Albert Delino. The ushers were George Ricconi and Norman Trochi.

All the beautiful bouquets were made by the very artistic Mabel Vaccari of Flowerland Flower Shop in Colma. She decorated the church with huge vases of cherry blossoms and white stock. Through the aisles clusters of white stock were tied with white satin bows.

A reception was held at American Legion Hall. Refreshments were served.

A buffet dinner at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Leonard, 634 Green avenue, culminated the days activities.

On their return, the young couple will reside at their newly constructed home in conjunction with a beautiful and most modern motel, Harold's Motel, Junipero Serra boulevard, Colma.

Seven To Run For SSF Council Positions

With two council seats to be filled in South San Francisco April 11, seven residents have taken out nomination papers for the positions.

Incumbents are Adolph Sani and Mayor Leo Ferko. Sani indicated he will seek re-election, but Mayor Ferko has his eye on the county assessor job, and will not run in the city elections.

Those who are in the running include Joseph J. Bracco, Thomas E. Kay, Arthur E. Anderson, Jay Conley, Max T. Petroff, Lawrence T. Verna, Ernest L. Bonalanza and George W. Holston.

Connecting Street Discussion Tonight; Pastor States He Is For The Road

Meeting tonight, February 23, to discuss the pro and con of a connecting street between Broadmoor and Westlake will be members of the Jefferson elementary school board.

It is possible several interested residents, and county and city officials will be present at the meeting which is to begin at 8 p.m. at 344 Santa Barbara street. The public is invited to attend.

At tonight's meeting the board is expected to take some action on the state's rejection of a plan to run a street through, 200 feet east of White street. This was the plan put forth by the county planning board, and rejected by the state as the road will allegedly constitute a "menace" to children attending the Garden Village school.

Also to be decided is whether or not the residents of Westlake and Broadmoor even desire such a connecting street at this time. Mike Callan, school board member, believes this is the case.

On the other side of the "fence" are many residents of Broadmoor such as The Rev. Max Zschiegner, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Broadmoor, who wrote the following letter to the "Record":

Dear Editor:

I have been following with interest the debate whether or not a road should go through directly between Broadmoor Village and Westlake. It seemed like a logical project which would definitely benefit the public and be advantageous to both communities concerned. Now with another voice of opposition raised, it appears, proponents of the road running south from Highway 1 to near White street in Broadmoor Village, may be delayed some more in their plans to make this a reality. From the "pro" side of the question, it may be pointed out that the two areas will undoubtedly be closely associated in community affairs and enjoy a close relationship in many ways. From the churches' standpoint, lack of this proposed road between the two communities would necessitate Sunday school children making the perilous and long trip up to Junipero Serra and around, in cases where the church of one's choice was located in the other village.

It will be impossible to have every denomination represented in either one of the villages, but between the two undoubtedly before too long there will be an inter-change of worshippers from one community to the other, seeking the Church of their choice.

These are, of course, in addition to the reasons already brought out in previous articles of this paper, and may or not in themselves carry much weight in determining the issue. Yet, I feel consideration should be presented from all angles, before it is decided not to go ahead with plans for uniting Broadmoor and Westlake by a direct, through road.

Signed,
Rev. Max Zschiegner, pastor,
Lutheran Church of Broadmoor

Woodrow Wilson PTA Exec. Board Holds Meeting

by Mrs. E. Goldkuhl
The Woodrow Wilson P. T. A. Executive Board meeting was held Tuesday, February 21st at the home of Mrs. James Snell, 153 Miriam street. Mrs. Wakehouse was co-hostess with Mrs. Snell for the dessert luncheon which was served preceding the meeting.

It was reported that the last Hot Dog Sale had not been as successful as previous ones and parents are urged to note that their support is needed each second and fourth Wednesday of the month. Children should bring their money on Monday in order to be served a hot dog lunch on Wednesday. The regular meeting was held at 2 p. m. and was presided over by Mrs. Earl White in the absence of the president.

A nominating committee was selected consisting of Mesdames Marie Sorenson, Ilse Berg, Irene Williams, Hilda Heagney, and Gordon Peterson. This committee will meet independently of the P. T. A. and present a panel of officers for next year at the March meeting, at which time nominations may also be received from the floor.

The highlight of the joint evening session held at the high school celebrating Founders' Day was the presentation of Life Membership awards to Mrs. Catherine Duffy who has served the P. T. A. for over fifteen years and Mrs. Helen Cheatham, the incumbent president and member of the Jefferson Elementary School Board of Trustees. These awards were made on the basis of contributions to child welfare and public service for children. The choices were unanimously applauded and Mrs. Irene Williams presented the awards.

Three Men Seek Commissioner Position April 3

Tom Jenkins, 29, 1148 Nimitz drive, announced this week he will seek a position on the Broadmoor-Colma Police Commission at the April 3 elections.

The attorney for the Broadmoor Property Owners Association will run against incumbent Armando Ferraris, 28, Colma, and Vincent P. Murphy (not to be confused with Vincent J. Murphy), 31, 516 Midway.

Under the supervision of the police commission is the unincorporated areas of Colma, Broadmoor and Garden Village. The election for the commissioner will be the only completely local election to be held in the Broadmoor-Colma area this year.

Murphy is the past president of the postal carrier's union in San Francisco, and well known around Broadmoor Village. Ferraris is in the produce business in Colma.

The other two members of the commission are Patrick Paty and Jack Gordon.

Colma Treasurer To Be Opposed

What started out as another routine election, may develop into a first class "fight" in Colma for the position of treasurer.

For the first time since he was elected in 1924, Henry Kempf will be opposed for the treasurer's position. His opposition will be G. H. Parker, superintendent of the Salem cemetery.

Once more, Colma voters are also looking forward to competition for the two council positions, although to date only the incumbents have filed their intentions to run for election.

Earl Taylor and John Price are the two incumbent councilmen. Each has served one term on the council.

Closing date for filing papers for the April 11 election is March 2.

BIBLE COMMENT FOR FEB. 26

Christianity Survives Even as It Did Early Paganism

THE contrast between the little group of Christians and the pagan world with which they were surrounded as the church took its roots and beginnings in the now famous cities could hardly have been greater.

Corinth, where Paul spent a considerable time on his missionary journeys, and to which city he addressed the longest and most revealing of his Epistles, was called the eye of Greece. "To live as they do at Corinth" became a byword for luxurious and cultured living. But here, too, as one can plainly see from I and II Corinthians, the church had to make its way against an immorality by which some of the professing Christians themselves were corrupted.

It was not amazing that probably well-intentioned, but undiscerning, souls should imagine that they could continue in the Christian community practices of their former pagan life, but one can see how uncompromisingly Paul rebuked them, and asserted the necessary moral integrity of Christian living, in personal life, in home and family relationships, and in all the situations of daily life.

One might dwell upon that contrast and conflict in the ancient world, but it is more fitting to realize how that contrast and struggle go on today. Modern paganism is mostly irreligious. It does not build temples, or erect luxurious altars. But its characteristics are the same. It is a paganism of immoral living, foul and degraded on its lower level, professing a culture and refinement in its higher devotees, but disregarding, or denying, the elemental integrities.

One need not be a pessimist to remark how much in our modern society partakes of the very things that were in that ancient pagan world, and that brought it to ruin, in spite of all its apparent culture, strength and splendor. Christianity survived, and Christianity will survive, but ancient paganism has its warnings for the paganism of our present environment.

A godless society and a godless culture have in them the seeds of destruction. History confirms the realism of the Bible.

Bandit Gets $300 From Colma Gas Station Saturday

Deputies today were searching for "the robber" who successfully got away with $300 from the Chevron gas station at Junipero Serra boulevard and San Pedro road last Saturday night.

The robbery took place at about 8 o'clock when Donald Anderson, 224 Niantic street, San Francisco, was putting the day's receipts in to a floor safe.

Anderson, the station attendant, told officers the unidentified thief first came into the station and purchased a dollar's worth of gas. About 15 minutes later, the man returned, and as Anderson held the money, he stuck a gun in his ribs. The attendant handed over the day's receipts and the bandit fled in a car.

Anderson got the car license number and deputies found it later at the El Rancho drive-in, Colma. However, it had been stolen earlier in San Francisco.

The gas station is operated by Earl Snow, 850 Northridge road, San Francisco.

BORDSON SPEAKS ON HOOVER PLAN AND THE V.A.

This is the first of a series of articles by Commander Peter D. Bordson of the Daly City American Legion Post No. 410. Herewith Bordson explains the Legion's views on that part of the report of the Hoover Commission dealing with the affairs of veterans.)

By Commander Peter D. Bordson

The veteran is no different from the average American in hating government red tape and run-around. Only he hates with more intensity. He has had his share of gruff top sergeants and officious second lieutenants. He resolved to be done forever with bureaucratic autocracy when he kissed compulsory saluting goodbye. His idea of civilian life is no more lining up for anything and no more pushing around by anybody!

World War II veterans have fared better than those of World War I. The lining up and the run-around ended for them when they shed their uniforms. They have a one-stop service agency for their needs as veterans in the present Veterans Administration.

But the veterans of World War were not so fortunate. Back in 1919 and 1920 there was a labyrinth of government agencies going through the motions of trying to serve them. For his various hard-earned rights, the veterans of the first World War was pushed around from the pension bureau to the public health service, to the war risk insurance bureau, to the federal board for vocational education and back again. It was a well-greased shuttle. The veteran skidded from the door of one bureau to that of another. He got a lot of experience and more wear and tear. But he got precious little relief. For the sick or disabled veteran it was a round of continual despair and frustration and here were only 4,000,000 veterans in those days!

LEGION BROUGHT ORDER
Correction of this bungled handling of veterans affairs was the first big undertaking of the American Legion in its early cradle days. It went to Washington to present the evidence of the mismanagement of veteran affairs. It presented photographic proof of how men wounded in battle were lodged in poorhouses, asylums and even county jails because there were no hospital beds while government agencies were wrangling over which bureau was top dog in handling veterans affairs.

President Harding was shocked. He named a committee of 10 prominent Americans headed by Brig. Gen. Charles G. Dawes as chairman, to study the deplorable situation.

The American Legion was the chief witness before this committee. The Dawes Committee recommended that all services to veterans be consolidated in one agency. Out of that recommendation grew the Veterans Bureau, established by law, late in 1921.

In 1929 President Herbert Hoover himself recommended a further improvement. The President declared that in the interest of efficiency, economy and more uniform administration the Pension Bureau and the National Home for Volunteer Soldiers should

VFW Auxiliary To Hold Party Next Month

A combination style show and canasta party will be held March 10 for members and friends of the Lake Merced Post No. 9921 VFW Auxiliary.

The party is to be held at the Colonial Inn at 12:30 p.m. The latest in women's fashions will be displayed, and later the women will play canasta.

Meanwhile, some 65 members and guests attended a pot-luck dinner given by the auxiliary on Valentine's Day. Everyone, including the children, who were given free suckers, seemed to enjoy the event, as did the lucky party who walked home with a free liquid gift. Tables and the hall where the party was held were decorated in the Valentine motif of red and white.

Also, recently, the Auxiliary enjoyed a fashion show made possible by the Rose Simpson shop in Broadmoor. Styles of Jane Andre were shown.

Adequate Bus Service Promised Westlake Children

With the Garden Village school due to open in one to two weeks, bus service will be furnished children in the Westlake district who plan to attend the new school.

James Snell, superintendent of schools, said that all parents will be notified of the bus schedule before the school opens.

There are approximately 15 children in Westlake who will attend the new Garden Village school, Snell said. The school provides rooms for children from kindergarten through the sixth grade.

And as new families move into Westlake, their younger children will be "channeled" into the Garden Village school, Snell reported.

"We hope, but we can't promise, that work will begin sometime this summer on a school for the Westlake area," Snell said.

At the present time bus service for children in Westlake is cut to a minimum, as the bus has to serve 10 routes which it won't have to service after Garden Village school opens.

OBITUARIES

Carl A. Anderson

A resident of Daly City for the past 35 years, Carl Aron Anderson, 71, 642 Bellevue, died at his home Wednesday, February 22. Death followed a long illness.

Born in Sweden, Anderson came to this country in his youth. During his life he was employed as an iron worker, and was retired at the time of his death.

Taking an active part in Swedish affairs in the Bay area, Anderson was a member of the Fylgia Lodge No. 119 Vasa of America.

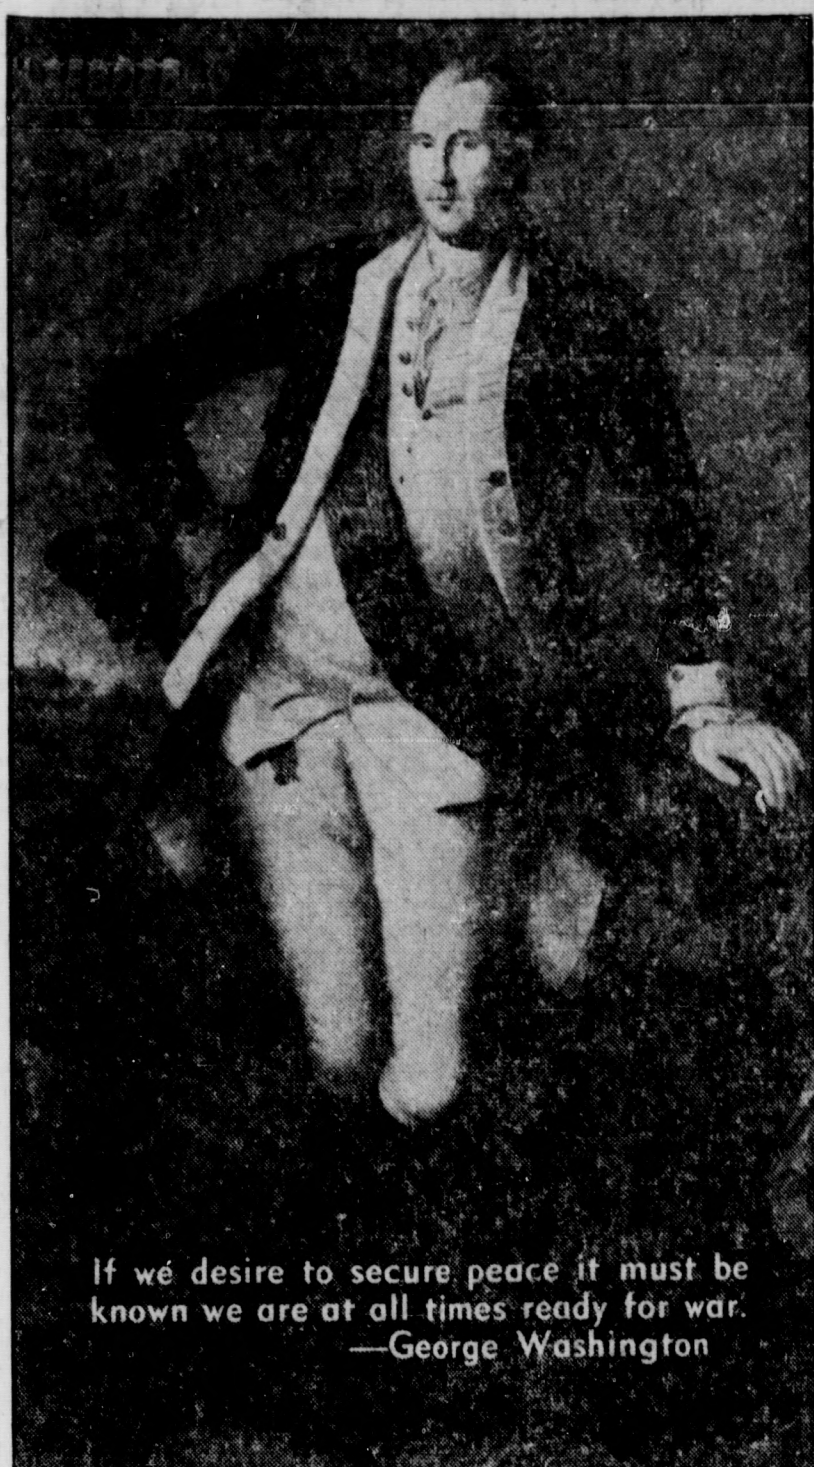

Anderson was the widower of the late Bertha N. Anderson; father of Clarence and Frances Anderson and of the late Mrs. Eleanor Sells. He was the grandfather of Robert and Sharon Anderson.

Funeral services are to be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday, February 24, at the W. C. Lasswell chapel. Interment will follow at Cypress Lawn Cemetery.

also be amalgamated with the Veterans Bureau. This was created the Veterans Administration, a streamlined agency dealing exclusively with all veteran affairs.

Today the VA is a one-stop service station for 19,000,000 veterans. It handles all their needs in disability and death compensations, disability and death pensions and so forth.

Under the watchful eye of the American Legion, the VA has been developed and so operated that, in spite of some existing imperfections, it stands alone today among all large governmental agencies as the one not subject to political pressure and free from pork barrel raids.

Nitrogen Supplies
Supplies of nitrogen, phosphate and potash for commercial fertilizers are expected to be about 10 per cent larger in 1949 than they were in 1948.

Million Board Feet
In the Douglas fir region of Oregon and Washington the manufacture of one million board feet of lumber provides a living for about 45 persons for a year.

Revamp Draperies
If figure 3 draperies are worn and faded they can be touched up with wax crayons, home industries specialists of the Extension service say. The material should be washed and pressed and then retouched with crayons before pressing again with a hot iron.

Come One, Come All To Broadmoor Legion "Hard Times" Dance Saturday

Lutheran Church Observes Lent

Last Wednesday evening marked the beginning of a series of special Lenten services at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior, corner of Junipero Serra and Garden.

The Pastor, Rev. Robert G. Konzelman, announced these services will be held each Wednesday evening at 7:30 throughout Lent. A series of sermons on the theme: "YE ARE BOUGHT WITH A PRICE" is planned for these special services. The Pastor remarked that these sermons are designed to be of help to those who are seeking the answer to the meaning of the Cross of Christ in our daily activity and relationship. Everyone is invited to attend these revealing and inspiring services.

This Sunday services will be held at the regular times. Worship at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School for all ages will begin at 9:45 a. m. Everyone welcome.

Tuesday evening the public is invited to the second in a series of lectures on "The Biblical Foundation of Our Christian Faith." These lectures, required of persons desiring membership in a Lutheran Church, are of great informative value to all.

Thursday evening of each week at 7:30 Boy Scout Troop No. 82, sponsored by The Lutheran Church of Our Savior, meets at the church.

Wondering what to do Saturday night?

Well, then, hitch on to the Broadmoor American Legion No. 824 "Hard Times" dance, to be held beginning at 8 p.m. in Colombo Hall on San Pedro road in Colma.

This promises to be one of the biggest and best dances in the Broadmoor-Colma area since last year. Featured will be:

1. Music by Paul Laws and his orchestra. This band is one of the best in the Bay area.

2. A free television set to be given to one of the lucky men or women attending the dance.

3. Costumes to be worn for the maximum of comfort. Actually the name of the dance comes from the fact that you may wear anything from a hotel towel to a run-down hula skirt. However, those with more moderate tastes may come in a regular suit or dress.

4. Refreshments served by ladies of the Legion Auxiliary. This is real home cooked food - from cookies to sandwiches. There will also be other refreshments.

And for those who wonder where their money is going, all funds taken in from the dance will be used in the Broadmoor-Colma area to further the work of a Legion in assisting local residents.

Tickets for the big event may be purchased at the door, or from any American Legion member.

Ford for power

Feel the "go" of the '50 Ford's "hushed" V-8 engine. It's the same type engine now used in America's costliest cars—but the '50 Ford brings it to you for hundreds less than most "sixes." And it's a quiet engine, too. It actually whispers while it works.

Ford for style

Ford's "Fashion Car" styling—now more beautiful than ever—is protected by new baked-on colors, "built to live outdoors." New sparkling upholstery fabrics are long lived, too. Even seat life has been lengthened through the use of non-sag front seat springs under foam rubber cushions.

Ford for price

To ride in a '50 Ford, you'd think you were riding in one of America's costliest cars—yet Ford is America's lowest-priced car with a V-8 engine. This hundred-horsepower "eight" is yours for hundreds less than most "sixes." Quality feature after quality feature such as Ford's low level "Mid Ship" Ride—Ford's sound-conditioned "LifeGuard" Body—Ford's 35% easier acting King-Size Brakes—make the '50 Ford the one fine car in its field.

"Seven Sisters" Comedy Play Coming To Jefferson High School March 3rd

Promptly at 8:15 p. m. next Friday, March 3, the curtain will go up in the Jefferson high school auditorium on the domestic comedy, "Seven Sisters."

This delightful three act comedy was adapted from the Hungarian writer, Herczeg, and written by Edith Ellis.

It's the old plot of a younger daughter trying to get her older sisters married so that she can marry. Does she succeed? That's for you to find out.

Mitzi, the younger sister, played by Jeanne Landon, is a little scatter brain with romance on her mind. Horkoy, played by Dave Rivera, is her helper who schemes with her to get her poor older sister married.

The cast includes: Rosemary Miceison as the widowed mother, Mrs. Gyurkovics; her seven daughters are Bea Cassassa, Carol Nicholson, Mary Lou Morris, Jeanne Landon, Margie Simms, Helen Baraza, Madie Irons.

Their beaux include: Richard Sims as dashing Col. Radvinsky; Ronald Dickson, David Rivera, Bob Galobic, Airo Gregori, Jim Buckner.

Tickets for the play are now being sold by Jefferson students and may be obtained at the door Friday night.

Under the fine direction of Miss Seaton, the students have gone all out in order that you might enjoy this light comedy. It is a complete high school play with stage settings by Mr. Moseley and stage crew production by Miss Seaton.

Bettie Duffy is in charge of advertising, and the complete cast is made up of high school students.

Aerie Auxiliary Initiates Members

Ladies of Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848 Auxiliary entertained a number of visitors from San Mateo Auxiliary No. 440 at a Valentine Day initiation.

During the meeting, 10 new members were welcomed into the auxiliary. The new members included: Lucille Stafford, Catherine Cronell, Bernice Long, Evelyn Ruppert, Mildred Severs, Amelia Davis, Marjorie Murray, Margaret Muller, Lorraine Todhunter and Cecelia Edinger.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the red and white corsages presented to the new members. Lyn Bosky, program chairman, announced the food sale to be a grand success.

"After the meeting everyone adjourned to the social hall where delicious refreshments were served. A short comedy skit was put on by Agnes Wood.

Frances Nienstiel, secretary, urges everyone to fill out their physical application. The next regular meeting will be held on February 28.

Gen. Pershing PTA Gives Teachers A Luncheon

By Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

(Publicity chairman's note: As a rule it isn't good form to write P.T.A. publicity in the first person, but since most of the scrambling took place at my home, it seems the best way to handle this piece.)

This was funny! As a rule things P.T.A. aren't particularly funny, but it does have its moments. The scrambled state of affairs on the morning of the Teachers' luncheon was one of them.

Tuesday, the 14th, or was it Wednesday, the 15th, dawned a beautiful day. I was in pedal pushers and shirt, all set to do a big ironing. The phone rang and Mrs. James Jordan asked if I, being the treasurer, would write her a check so she could go down town and pick up the chicken pies for the Teachers' luncheon. She would call for it about ten.

After the check was written, I said, "By the way, Effie, when is the Teachers' luncheon?" "Today," she said. "We are to be up at the school at 11 o'clock."

Mrs. W.: "Who is chairman?" Mrs. J.: "I don't know. Were you to bring the carrots and peas?"

Mrs. W.: "No, I don't think so, but I said I'd help. Who was to bring the salad? What kind of salad are we having?"

Mrs. J.: "Tossed salad, I guess. That goes best with chicken pie. Who was to bring the rolls? Was somebody going to bring rolls?"

We had no answers to any of these questions. Ten o'clock on the morning of the Teachers' luncheon, and we were to be there at 11. Quickly Mrs. Jordan got on the phone and called everybody who might know anything about it—nobody did. Greens for the salad to be bought and prepared, rolls and butter to be bought, carrots and peas to be bought and prepared, chicken pies to be picked up, two cakes to be made, and Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. George Freeland were the only ones who knew their assignments, if any. Fortunately Mrs. Freeland had the cakes made or in the making. But you should have seen that luncheon and those table decorations—they were beautiful.

Quickly things were lined up, this one to take the salad, that one to bring carrots and peas, and other one rolls and butter, and Mrs. Jordan was going after the chicken pies!

Everything was ready by the time the teachers came down. The luncheon certainly looked good, and the teachers seemed to think it was. Mrs. Freeland, president, who sat down with the teachers, as hostess, passed the word along to us that everything tasted as good as it looked. Even when we ate later, it still tasted pretty good. The Teachers' luncheon was pronounced a success.

The table decorations were unusually clever. In the valentine motif, they consisted of a little cardboard French artist, complete with turned up mustachios and a tiny pointed beard, in a long, full-sleeved, crepe paper smock, finished in minute detail, with a little dark beret cocked jauntily on his head. In one hand he held a brush, in the other a palette of colors, from which long streamers of narrow, rippling, colored paper, cascaded to the table and down the entire length of it, to form the center decoration. An easel, with a beautiful, hand made valentine stood in front of him at the head of the table, as if he had just finished painting it. Place cards and candy cups were also in the valentine motif.

Mrs. Traxler and Mrs. Gross did the decorations.

The busy women on this busy morning were Mrs. James Jordan, Mrs. John Eason, Mrs. Raymond Gross and her mother, Mrs. Grace. Mrs. Dorothy Traxler, Mrs. D. C. Gensel, Mrs. George Freeland, Mrs. Arthur Lauffenburger and Mrs. E. K. Whinnen.

Due to the length of this article, the history of General Pershing P.T.A. will start next week, instead of this week, as stated in last week's article.

AUTOMOTIVE MANUFACTURERS SET NEW ALL-TIME RECORD

Automotive manufacturers in the United States turned out a total of 6,238,088 motor vehicles during 1949 to set a new all-time record in production, reports the National Automobile Club. Of this total, 5,108,841 were passenger cars, 1,123,736 were trucks, and 5,511 were buses.

CROCKER

The biggest interest this week centered in the valentine boxes with their contents. Hundreds of valentines were in the big red and white boxes which were placed in the halls. Each room opened its box during a period set aside for a party when each person received his valentines. The high eighth grade even had a valentine dance in the basement which was enjoyed by the entire group in attendance.

An important election was held last week when school officers of the afternoon session were chosen in a truly democratic manner. Those winning the election were: president, James Snell; vice president, Dick Hopman; secretary, Donna O'Dell; treasurer, John MacNichols; room representatives, Howard and Arlene Trapp; sergeants-at-arms, Jo Ann Meadows and Dave Rasmussen.

FOLK DANCING

The girls attending Crocker School in the P.M. session are very enthusiastic over the recent folk dancing program being taught on Tuesdays. At the last class the girls learned the Rye waltz, schottische, and Black Hawk waltz. It was surprising how quickly the group learned the box waltz and other steps required of them.

Crocker has both gained and lost students during the past week. Newcomers to the eighth grade are Helen Bradbury from San Francisco and Marie Rockey from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. William Curtis and Walter Freeman transferred to Half Moon Bay's fifth grade.

SIXTH GRADE

Students of the sixth grade are studying about the Pacific explorations. Although Balboa discovered the Pacific explorations. Although Balboa discovered the Pacific and Magellan named the Pacific, it was Captain James Cook, an English sea captain, who taught the people the most about the Pacific. Looking for the great continent supposed to be located in the South Pacific, he made three long voyages thoroughly investigating and charting each small island.

Correction: Rial, Not Dederman Wins High Score Honors

By Milton Tromborg

Jack Rial, former star of the St. Mary's Gaels, took high honors in the scoring department of the Jefferson High Night Basketball league instead of Jack Dederman of Highway Patrol.

Rial, who plays for Veterans Inn, had 61 points and was fifth in the scoring department, until it was found out that Veterans Inn and the V. V. Merchants had failed to play each other.

After the league was officially over, Veterans Inn played the Merchants and won by the score of 71 to 31.

Rial, in this game scored a high 36 points. This not only gives him the championship for most points scored during the league, but the championship for the most points scored in one night.

Jack Dederman was high point man with 27, but Rial now holds the record with 36. Incidentally, of the 36 points made by Rial, only two points were free throws, while all the rest were field goals. Rial is first, with 97, followed next by Dederman with 90, Savelly with 79, Dunn with 77, Dilg with 65.

COLMA PLAYS REVENGE GAME

Colma Boys Club, which seems to have pretty tough luck in and around their home town, played a revenge game with the Highway Patrolmen, but again they came out on the short end, 53-42.

About a month ago, the Patrolmen defeated Colma 37-35 in one of the toughest games of the league.

Colma held Jack Dederman down to 9 points, but let the other four men score 13, 10, 9, and 13 points, respectively.

There is talk of another league in the making and if there is, this writer will cover all the games.

children are learning this quite quickly and well.

Children of the seventh grade are now working on per cent. They can now find the per cent of a number by using either fractions or decimals.

In social studies they are learning about feudalism when the king of a nation was all powerful. It was during this period of the dark ages when the age of chivalry existed. Great castles were erected for protection of the group. Learning was perpetuated in the monasteries.

ROOM 1

The seventh grade of Room 1 has been studying about Spain and Portugal the past week and learning of the great influence the Moors had on Spanish life. Many of the architectural designs of these peoples are still discernable in the many villages of present day Spain.

The practical application of fractions and percentage is gradually being absorbed by the students of Room 1.

STUDENT BODY DANCE

The HS grade of Crocker School gave a valentine dance during their after-school, double-session lunch period. Supervised by the principal and with honored guests Superintendent Snell and Supervisor Falconer, a pleasant forty-five-minute period was spent in social and folk dancing. Acting as hosts and hostess were Jack Plunkett, president of the A.M. session class, Alice Quikert, sergeant-at-arms, and Jerry Gioni, HS grade student. Students took full charge of the affair, decorating the room with the valentine theme, arrang-

Marilyn Mosman Honored At Bridal Showers Last Week

During the past week, well wishing friends and relatives of Miss Marilyn Mosman, bride-to-be of March 4, held two showers in her honor.

The first of the showers was held February 14 at the home of Miss LaVerne Torkelson, 127 Santa Cruz. The home was decorated in the style of Valentine's Day, with gay red and white bunting and appropriate table decorations.

At this shower, Marilyn received various gifts of linen to help her keep house in her new Palo Alto home. Those present included Mesdames Eva Aiello, Doris Wright, Alice Johnson, Colleen VanKirk, Janet Goulding, Lucille Tromborg, Ann Rixou, Mary Cameron, and Eleanor Kendall. Also on hand were Misses Gloria Bacigalupi, Jean Bennett, Betty Visser, and Alma Becker.

But, two days later, a group of co-workers of the navigation firm where Marilyn is employed gave her a miscellaneous bridal shower. The event was held at the Residence Club, 940 Powell street, San Francisco.

Hostesses for the evening were Misses Pauline Loomis and Barbara Mattson.

Marilyn is to wed Arleigh J. Finner Jr. of Hawaii at the Chapel of Lakeside March 4. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mosman, 232 Hillcrest drive.

Lenten Services Open Sunday At Grace Church

A series of Lenten services will begin this Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. in the Grace Presbyterian church, Hanover and Evergreen streets.

In connection with the evening's service, two sound films will be shown. The films are: "The Holy Land" and "Pilgrimage Through Palestine."

The public is invited to attend the services which are to culminate in a Good Friday communion service.

Meanwhile, the World Day of Prayer will be observed at the church this Friday, February 24, at 1:30 p. m. Arranged by Michi Kawai, the program will be Faith For Our Times.

This day has been designated on an international and interdenominational and interracial basis to join the peoples of the world together in prayer.

Mrs. Leela Frazier will give the call to worship. Others taking special parts are Mesdames Elizabeth Bright, A. E. Stierl, Joseph Rieth and H. S. Holcomb.

Mrs. Adams will present a group of women who will tell of the work which is accomplished thru the offerings of the meetings via an imaginary trip around the world.

Characters in the play are Mrs. William Harberts, leader; Mrs. Henry Garrison, journalist; Mrs. Harker Hooker, housewife; Mrs. Henry Adams, council president; Mrs. Leila Frazier, committee chairman; Mrs. A. Anker, high school teacher; Mrs. Stanford Hannah.

Anyone interested in this service is welcome to attend.

Mrs. Doris McKay Given Birthday-Baby Shower

Honored guest at a combination baby shower and birthday party February 18 was Mrs. Doris McKay, 73 Bepler street.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. Violet Schottman, 61 Otis avenue, San Francisco. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Schottman and Mrs. Louise Cook.

Wishing Mrs. McKay a happy birthday, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marie McKay presented her with a lovely corsage. Other guests joined in the well wishing and helped the honored guest eat a birthday cake baked for the occasion by Mrs. Schottman.

In addition, the expectant mother was presented with many beautiful and helpful gifts for both herself and her baby to come.

Those present at the combination birthday party and shower were Florence O'Connor, Jackie Adler, Marie McKay, Marie Rankin, Doris Atkins, Mrs. Pete Dormoy, Pat McKay, Myrtle Gay, Norma McKay, Josephine Lamendola, Louise Cook, Mrs. W. Starr, Winifred Walker, Mrs. J. Cook, Lillian Pezzola, Gladys McElvain, Mary Malacrida, Rose Gazzano, Mrs. M. L. McKay, Clara McElvain, Virginia McElvain, Myrtle McKay, and Violet Schottman.

D. C. Sportswomen To Help Sports Show Exhibit

The discussions were lively at the Daly City Sportswomen's meeting, held at Frances Nienstiel's, on Hillcrest drive, the night of the 15th.

Everyone let her back hair down and said what she had to say, from Ingrid Bergman right down to why don't we do this and that? As a matter of fact, that is what really opened up the discussion.

A searching for something worthwhile to hitch our star to. Some of the members, nay, most of the members, have felt that our aims and objectives have not been sufficiently clear, either to ourselves or others, to make a talking and selling point to bring in new members.

Originally the club was organized, more or less, to assist the men in their Rod and Gun Club, and to engage in active sports. However, most of the members having young children, and many having to work, it was soon learned that it was practically impossible to engage in active sports as a group. Some could go to this or that on one time, but another couldn't go then, so group participation was out.

Last year a real service was rendered at the fishing pool for children, held in connection with the Sports Show, and sponsored by the Associated Sportsmen. This year, again, volunteers have been asked for in connection with the fishing pool, and many members who are free in the afternoon have agreed to help. The Sports Show is being held at the Civic Auditorium this year and it is during the week day afternoon, when the men are working, that the Sportswomen are asked to take over and supervise. The Sports Show opens the 3rd of March and runs through the 12th.

To go back to the search for some group activity that would be of interest to all, it was decided to contact the Volunteer Service Bureau for a list of activities that might be engaged in. The secretary, Audrey Poff, will secure the list and present it to the membership at the next meeting for discussion and choosing of projects.

It was decided not to renew membership in the Associated Sportsmen at this time, when the club is so small. At some future date, perhaps, if we wish to engage in active sports.

Vi Prigmore extended an invitation to all to attend an enchilada luncheon and whilst at the school on Naples and Italy the afternoon of the 21st.

Those present at the meeting were Vi Prigmore, Frances Nienstiel, Lorene Gardner, Betty White, Mary Shalkoski, Virginia Meierding, Gwen Reed, Mildred Mae Whinnen, Lorraine Fox.

It's good business to do business over Long Distance... to express exactly what you mean through the personality of your own voice. And you'll get the most out of fast, personal Long Distance service when you remember these two tips:

First—organize your call... plan what you'll say in advance... keep notes while you're talking. That's how you can say as much in three minutes as in an average letter.

Second—keep a list of the out-of-town numbers you call... for if you can tell the operator the number—your call often will be completed within 30 seconds.

Clickers Donate To March Of Dimes

Doing their share for the March of Dimes, the Daly City Clickers gave $35.70 to the organization this week, following a recent dance.

The money was donated by persons attending the dance which was hailed by all as a great success.

Clickers President Frank Prisco introduced members of other folk dancing groups in the area, including the High Steppers, Miraloma Park, and Saint and Spinners.

Highlight of the event was exhibition dancing by the Daly City Folk Dancers and the Tyroleans of San Bruno.

Another event of interest to the Clickers was a box luncheon and social held February 16 during the regular meeting night.

Girl Scout Troop No. 14 Serve Up Spaghetti Dinner

Combining Valentine's Day with a spaghetti dinner, members of Girl Scout Troop No. 14 met last Thursday at the Peoria street scout house.

The young ladies arranged the table decorations, and prepared the entire dinner from the spaghetti through to the salads.

Under the supervision of Troop Leader Mrs. Mildred Seiler there are 12 girls now doing active work in the scout troop. Mrs. Seiler is assisted by Mrs. Mary Perro, assistant troop leader.

Officers of the troop are: Margaret Runge, chairman; Jean Wickersheim, assistant chairman; Charlene Smith, secretary; Larverne Novelli, treasurer; Marilee Kirby, Juliet Low chairman.

The troop meets each Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Peoria street scout house.

Meanwhile, Miss Kirby attended a special meeting of Juliet Low chairmen Saturday at the home of Mrs. Larson, 355 Templeton. At that time the various chairmen discussed activities for Juliet Low Day, March 18.

Georgina Minehan Betrothal To E. I. Denning Revealed

At a cocktail party hosted February 12 by the William F. Minehans at their Novato home, announcement was made of the betrothal of their daughter, Georgina Ann, to Edward I. Denning.

Georgina Ann was graduated from a San Francisco high school and she is now employed at the Bank of California. It was while working at the bank that she met Edward, who is also employed there.

The bridegroom-to-be, son of Mrs. Agnes Denning, 151 Wellington, is a graduate of Our Lady of Perpetual Help school and Jefferson High school and is now employed in the aforesaid bank.

No wedding date has been set, although the couple expect to marry in the early fall of this year.

The Vernazza twins, James and Joe, proved that Lembi's Indians of Rhythm, en masse or singly, are in a class by themselves, when they won in the Bennie Walker semifinals, last Monday night, on Station KGO.

Mayor Paul G. Selmi will throw in the ball tomorrow which will inaugurate the first official baseball game on the new diamond at Vista Grande park.

Ann Mijehovich won the Lincoln essay contest at Jefferson Union high school, and her name will be engraved on the Lincoln plaque. Students given honorable mention were Evelyn Azzaro, Louis Nava and Gloria Linden.

Jefferson basketball squads won two games Friday, the first time in school history that the local cagers have won a double victory in league competition. Half Moon Bay was the victim of both the lightweights and the varsity.

Arthur Linhares, 29, and Victory N. C. John, 19, applied for a marriage license last week.

Girl Scout Scoops Column To Begin Soon In "Record"

By Jane Keith

You Daly City - Colma Girl Scouts have a 1950 chance to make YOUR troop known by everyone in town!

The Daly City Record is giving YOU a Scout column. SO, if you like scouting and want everyone to know how much fun you are having and how many things you are learning, answer some of the following questions and mail them to Mrs. Jane Keith, 118 East Vista avenue or call me at JU 6-4376.

Here are the questions: How does the Scout House look? What is Day Camp like? Why do you like or dislike your leader? What do you like most about scouting? What is your project now? There are many other questions to ask, so you think up some if the above don't suit you.

NOW, before you get scared and think it would be too hard to do—just read the little article submitted by Phyllis Cornack of Troop 22:

The Girl Scouts of my troop, 22, have accomplished: We made nose bags, we have gone on one hiking trip—it was long, but fun.

What we hope to do: We of Troop 22 have planned to go on an outdoor cooking trip on Easter vacation if weather is O.K.

See, it wasn't hard at all and you know you can do it too! Let's keep the column going and earn you Journalism badges at the same time. I'll be hearing from you soon, I hope.

CDA Business Meeting March 2

All members of the Court St. Mary No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America, are reminded of the regular business meeting.

This meeting is to be held March 2 at 8 p.m. in Masonic Hall, 17 Hillcrest drive. At that time past and forthcoming business will be discussed.

At the last meeting of the group Mrs. Margaret Mackall spoke on "The Rose of Lippi." Following her talk, refreshments were served by the social committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Alma Parmisano. Assisting her were Mesdames Katherine Phelan, Josephine Pine, Anna Panella and Elizabeth Powers.

WHY IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN!

NEWS OF YOUR NEIGHBORS

Vuli Balbi, Daly City's derby-topped sanitary engineer, is still collecting hats. This week the bemused, smiling Balbi was tipping his hat left and right to local citizens. Outside of the desire to be courteous, Balbi had another reason for his polite action. For beneath his battered derby rested still another hat, a rimless, skull cap job reminiscent of today's fashion among well-dressed women.

There didn't seem to be any excuse for the addition, because the weather was warm enough to warrant only one hat. However, rumor has it that Balbi now has more hair on his lip than his head, and is disguising his balding pate under the protective felt cover of a skull cap. Who knows, maybe he's started something that will put the hair restorers out of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cristoni, 60 E. Cavour, and their son Ralph are leaving this week to spend a few days in Colusa, California.

There they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Jacometti, 336 Clay street. The Messinas, Bottaros and Chlados wish them a nice trip, and hope they will be home soon.

Mrs. Florence Carbone, 31 Werner street, is a great lover of crab. But last Thursday evening one of the crustaceans fought back.

While she was downing a delicious morsel, Mrs. Carbone somehow lodged a piece of shell under her fingernail. She couldn't get it out, so she was escorted to Junipero Serra hospital. There a doctor extracted the bit of crab cover, and Mrs. Carbone went back to dinner.

Pete Cancilla, 158 Westlake, has no doubt today that his wife really polishes and shines the floors of his home. In fact, he's afraid she overdoes a good thing. Last Friday evening Cancilla was admiring the floor when he suddenly felt his feet go out from underneath him. The next second Pete was stretched out on the floor with his fist jammed through a composite door. Fortunately Pete sustained only minor injuries of his left hand and was treated for cuts and abrasions at Junipero Serra hospital. There is no indication as to what was the fate of the door.

J. William Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Higgins, 146 Woodrow street, has enrolled for the spring semester at the University of California, College of Agriculture in Davis. William, a sophomore in dairy husbandry, is one of 1,650 students enrolled for the spring semester.

Nelio Vannucci, 33 Cliffside drive, was on "sick call" for a few minutes Monday when he was involved in a minor accident at the Westlake tract. Vannucci was driving a carry-all truck when he bumped into the rear of another machine. The force of the collision drove Vannucci's head back against the seat of the carry-all. He suffered minor concussion of the head, and went back to work after treatment at Junipero Serra hospital.

Niel Altilla, 1049 Hanover, was having trouble with his automobile Tuesday evening when the Daly City fire department dropped in to assist. Somewhat puzzled by their presence, Altilla called his wife. She reported that she had called the firemen when she'd seen smoke billowing from the family engine. Niel thanked the hose hoisters for their concern, but assured them he had put out the engine fire without any trouble. Firemen returned home, Niel went back to his engine, and Mrs. Altilla went back to the evening dishes.

Mrs. McLennan, 485 Hillside boulevard, has nothing but a good word for the police department today. Thanks to the boys in blue she didn't have to smash a window to get into her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. McLennan had locked herself out, and was debating on how to get back in her house when she thought of the police. She put in a call, and a few minutes later an agile officer climbed through a window and opened the door.

Bethel To Hold Charter Night

Bethel UD, OJD, will hold its "Charter Night" March 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, 17 Hillcrest drive.

Further details of the evening are not available at this time.

Meanwhile, the potluck dinner held by the Bethel, February 17, was a great success. It was attended by almost 200 interested persons.

After the dinner, seven girls were initiated into the Bethel. The initiation work was done very well by all of the officers.

DALY CITY-COLMA

It was Ladies Day at the Daly City Lions club regular meeting Wednesday, and 35 wives of members were present to hear guest speaker Louis B. Dematteis, San Mateo county district attorney.

Introduced by Judge W. J. Sweeney, Dematteis spoke on a positive attack against communism. He asserted that America has been on the defense instead of the offense against the red menace.

"In order to score points against the communists we must carry the attack to them, spreading the good word about the American way not only with words but actions."

Analyzing the spread of communism, the district attorney pointed out that the creed was popular only among people who had nothing and were looking for the way out of poverty. Thus in France, Italy and other countries the communists appeal to the downtrodden because they offer salvation.

However, too many Americans believe that because a foreigner votes communism, he is in reality a communist. There is a great difference between the two, as the man is voting not for a party, but rather for a possible cure to his troubles.

"When these communists are asked whether or not they would rather go to America or Russia, their answer is overwhelmingly in favor of America," Dematteis said.

Following the district attorney, the ladies were honored with various gifts. Five of the women took home five boxes of candy from Williams Candy store, and 10 tickets to the Daly City Theatre were given out.

Entrants whose work this year covers a wide range of artistic endeavor, will be awarded gold achievement keys.

Bethel No. 26 To Present Show

Talent will be highlighted Friday night, February 24 when Bethel No. 26, OJD, presents its "New Talent" program.

Set aside for the new, talented members of the group to demonstrate their abilities, the program will get underway at 8 p.m. Members will see the following women in action: Barbara Hoffma, piano; Yvonne and Barbara Cooper, skit; Odette Luce, skit; Corinne Stralinsky, dance; Carol Huntington, guitar; Charlotte Wright, guitar.

Meanwhile, February 10, the Bethel held its semi-annual potluck dinner. Chairman of the affair was Elise Anderson. The dinner was a great success.

Following the dinner, a general business meeting was held. Lucille Forsyth presided at the meeting.

Preventing Cattle Bloat
To keep bloating in check, hungry cows should never be turned into a lush clover pasture without first feeding them all the nutritious hay they will eat just before turning into pasture. This can be accomplished by taking cattle off pasture early in evening and feeding hay next morning before allowing on pasture.

Women Of Moose Attend Meeting

Meeting at Redding this week for the Women of the Moose conference are several women from the San Francisco chapter No. 739.

Among those present are: Gladys Sisco, associate graduate regent; Vivian Lasco, senior regent; Clotilda Guarzzi, junior regent; Irma Heighburger, chaplain; Vivian Saviane, guide; Eva Haverlock, college of regents; Irma Li-barry, college of regents.

The San Francisco chapter is on the honor roll, and the senior regent will be a guest at a dinner given in honor of all "top honor" chapters of California.

The conference opened February 23 and will continue until Saturday, February 25.

Rayon Garments
Since water spots rayon, don't let rayon garments dry thoroughly and then sprinkle. Instead, roll the rayon garment in a towel to eliminate excess moisture; then hang on a hanger until dry enough to iron.

Lincoln Lads Get Jump On Jeff

Tangling for the basketball February 10, these lads from Lincoln and Jefferson looked pretty good. However, the Lincoln lads proved better all around and took the Indians by the neat score of 36 to 10. Here we have, left to right: an unidentified Lincoln man; the head of Owen Charles, guard; Lincoln guard, Don Kaddy and Jeff guard Ed Galindo jumping for the ball; Al Williams, Jeff No. 22 and John Custer, Lincoln No. 11. JS Merchants Now Gelsi's Tavern; New Team Off To Good Season Start Junipero Serra Merchants ball team fans, attention.

As of two weeks ago the Merchants are playing under the new name and sponsorship of Gelsi's Tavern.

Of course, it may not all be in a name, but to date Gelsi's have done pretty well. In their first seasonal game February 12 they downed the Bankers by the neat score of 9 to 4. Then, just last Sunday they walked over the Junior Seals by the score of 6 to 2.

"We're sure we've really got a team, and ask only the support of the Daly City residents," Vince Merlo and Fred Federighi, sponsors, said.

The same ironmen who fought with the Merchants are now on the Gelsi team. Needless to say, Daly City's favorite manager, Monsieur Eddie White, will direct the boys through the coming season.

Returning to last Sunday's game, there is little doubt that Gelsi's has an A-1 pitcher in Bourneville, who struck out 10 men. Arata also did his share, crossing home plate twice. Another man to watch is Decker, who came to bat three times, and reached first twice.

This Sunday Gelsi's will take on the San Francisco Firemen at Marchbanks at 2 p.m.

Indians Lose Fight In Fourth Period; Will Take On Warriors Friday

Sarto's Beat Proseks, 6 To 0

Superior ball and the pitching of Bill Rainey and Dunves took the Sarto team for a 6 to 0 win over Proseks last Sunday.

This followed last week's loss to Lucky Lager by the short score of 2 to 1. All of the boys seemed to be working on every cylinder and few of them missed seeing first base at one time or another during the game.

As usual, the best hitter for the lads was Al Sterling who got 3 for 4. Also doing their share were Rainey and Faustino who came across the home base during the game.

While the team may have to disband later in the season (San Francisco high schools are taking the star players) the boys are now doing a fine job of playing ball.

Colma Boys Team Pitcher Injured

Bad luck literally struck out the Colma Boys Senior team pitcher in last week's game with the Am Vets.

Pitcher Dick Lansom was up to bat in the fifth inning when the Vets pitched put one right across the plate, but too high. The ball struck Lansom on his elbow, and he was forced out of the game with a fractured elbow.

Team backer Joseph Sarto reports Lansom will be out of the game for some time to come.

With the loss of their pitcher, the Colma lads went to pieces and lost the game 8 to 1. Short stop Howard Heffron filled in for Lansom, but he wasn't able to hold down the Vets.

This Sunday at noon, on the Jefferson field, the Colma team will meet Horsetrader Ed's. They have downed the auto merchants team twice during the past year.

Trailing by three points at the end of the third quarter, 27-30, the Jefferson Indians failed to pour on the steam, while San Mateo racked up 25 points to win by the final score of 55-32 at the Jeff gym last Friday night.

Regardless of the score, the Indians were in the ball game up to the last five minutes of the fourth period. Again the same old thing hit the Indians, fast break used by the opposition, and failing to hit the hoop themselves.

The Indians started in a slow manner as they usually do, and were behind at the end of the first period, 17 to 5. Realizing that they were not shooting at the hoop enough, the Indians came back in the second half to lag behind at half time by only four points, 24-20.

San Mateo ran the score to 29-20 before the Indians could score again. Nicolini scored on a 20-foot set shot. Jack Allain, playing one of his better games, scored a field goal on a lay-in shot, to run the score to 29-24. Allain again scored, this time on a free throw.

Forward Bob Varni of the Indians scored a field goal on a rebound, while San Mateo scored a free throw, yet still being able to hold the lead at the end of the third quarter, 30-27.

Free throws by Allain and Mosman ran the score to Jeff 29 and San Mateo 42.

The last field goal by the Indians was made by Jack Allain on a right-handed hook shot. Nicolini scored a free throw in the last minute of the game, while San Mateo still using a fast break, ran the score to 55 before the gun went off.

As you can see, the Indians lost out in the last quarter of the game.

Bob Kahler, of San Mateo, came closer to breaking the P.A.L. scoring record of 120 points. At the start of the game, Kahler had 90 points and only needed 30 more points to tie the record.

Now Kahler only needs 13, because he scored a high 17 in the Jefferson game.

JEFF 30s LOSE 7th IN A ROW

Unable to win one P.A.L. game so far this year, Coach Joe McGrath hopes flew out the coop last Friday night, by losing to San Mateo 37-23.

This was about the best game that the Jeff 30s have played so far this year, when you look at the scores of the other games.

The Indians were behind at all times, yet a little rally in the third period gave the Jefferson fans something to cheer for.

Tonight will be the last chance for the 30s to win one P.A.L. game. So there should be plenty of action all around, including the varsity game. So remember, tonight Jefferson Indians vs. South City Warriors, at South City, with game time at 7:30.

FISH AND GAME NOTES

by Jimmy Fox

CRABBING GOOD

A couple of the fishin' fools of the Daly City Rod & Gun Club were at it again last Sunday. Six o'clock found this writer and Ed Achstetter out in a boat off Fort Point with 10 crab pots strung out across the water.

Three hours of chugging around in a circle pulling up the nets and re-baiting them and dropping 'em again produced 37 fine crabs. Back home again at 12 noon the work began. With the pot on the gas burner in the basement and with the fragrant aroma of boiling crabs filling the air it wasn't long until the neighbors started sniffing the breeze and wondering if a portion of Fisherman's Wharf hadn't moved out to Daly City.

Next activity on the Sportsmen's calendar is a salmon fishing trip scheduled for a Sunday in March. The club is going ahead with plans for the annual Rifle and Shotgun Shoot to be held this spring. Also in the planning stage is the Surf Casting Tournament to be held in April or May.

At the last meeting of the Daly City Rod & Gun Club members led the way for the other clubs in the area in starting a Junior Sportsmen program. A motion was made and passed permitting jun-

San Francisco is the only city in the United States which sponsors a year-round outdoor band concert.

French Camp, established by Hudson's Bay Company trappers in the early 1800s, was the first white settlement in central California.

Boys from 16 years to 18 years to submit applications for membership. They will be granted full voice on the floor of the meetings and will participate in all club activities. Upon reaching 18 years of age they will start paying dues and will be granted full privileges of voting and holding office.

The club junior committee is also working on a junior program for boys from 12 to 16 years old.

SECURITY and Happiness

The simple faith of this child is written all over her beaming little face. The awed expression, the clasped hands, and the prayerful eyes show without a shadow of a doubt that this small girl has been taught truths of the Christian Faith.

Already she has been taken regularly to the services of the Church, habits which she will not likely break as she grows older. At night Mother tells her stories from the Bible, and at bedtime she kneels reverently to pray before she falls asleep.

A child with such training has been given the greatest insurance of happiness that parents can bestow. No matter what course her life may lead, she will always be able to rely upon her early teachings as her greatest source of comfort and direction.

Only by giving your children the benefit of Christian training can you hope to bless them with security and happiness in the future. It is never too early or too late to begin. Take your children to Church this Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SPORTSMEN'S CALENDAR

The Division of Fish and Game reminds California sportsmen of the following general regulations which apply to current hunting and fishing.

CATFISH.—No closed season. Bag and possession limit: 15 pounds and one fish in the aggregate. Minimum size limit: 9 inches in Clear Lake; 10 inches in District 22; none elsewhere. Night fishing permitted in District 22, Siskiyou, Shasta, and Modoc counties.

STEELHEAD TROUT.—Open until February 28 in specified streams. See abstract of angling regulations.

STRIPED BASS.—No closed season. Bag limit: five fish or 25 pounds and one fish, or two fish regardless of weight. Minimum size limit: 12 inches.

BLACK BASS, SUNFISH, CRAPPIE, SACRAMENTO PERCH.—Ends February 28 in all counties north of Mopu, Madera, Fresno, Kings, and San Luis Obispo. No closed season elsewhere or in Clear Lake. Bag limits: five black bass, 25 sunfish, crappie, perch. No size limits.

OCEAN FISH.—No closed season except for grunion and salmon, now open. Bag limits: 50 scallops, 15 rockfish, 2 marlin, 2 black sea bass, 2 broadbill swordfish, 3 salmon, 10 tuna, croaker, skipjack, albacore, barracuda, yellowtail, white sea bass, bonito, rock bass, kelp bass, corbina, halibut, ling cod and cabezone. No limit other species, except salmon, now closed.

CLAMS.—Ends April 30 in Humboldt and Monterey bay areas. No closed season elsewhere. Bag limits: 30 razor; 10 big neck; 10 Pismo; 15 Washington in Districts 2 and 10; 15 Washington and big neck combined, but not more than 1 big neck in Marin county. No limit on jack knife clams.

CRABS.—Ends July 31. Bag limit: 10 in Eel River, Humboldt and Trinidad Bays; none elsewhere. Size limit: no males under seven inches. No females may be taken.

1950 Regulations For State Fish And Game Ready

The Fish and Game Commission has announced California's annual game seasons and bag limits three months earlier than usual for a growing army of more than half a million hunters.

The 1950 regulations represent a composite of recommendations from individuals, sportsmen's groups, and Division of Fish and Game technicians. They were set at the Commission's late January meeting, as required by a new legislative law.

Hunting rules were formerly put together during an April regulatory powers session.

Deer hunting, which occupies a majority of State license holders, begins August 7 in central and south coastal areas. San Diego county is excluded. Two bucks is the bag limit during a 40-day season closing September 15.

September 16 to October 15 is the season set for the balance of the State. Two bucks may be taken in Del Norte, Trinity, Humboldt, and Tehama counties; District 1 of Shasta county, and west of Highway 99 in Siskiyou county. A one-buck limit applies in the balance of the late season areas.

Forked-horn deer are illegal targets in Modoc county; Siskiyou county east of Highway 99, and Shasta county in district 14. A change in regulations this year permits possession of forked-horns in the southeastern portion of Lassen county.

Bow-and-arrow hunters may stalk their deer during 10-day ad-

LOBSTERS.—Ends March 15. No bag limit. Size limit: none under 10 1/2 inches.

COCKLES.—Ends March 31 in Marin county. No closed season elsewhere. Bag limit: 50. Minimum size limit: 1 1/2 inches in diameter.

PREDATORY ANIMALS.—No closed season. No license required for taking of moles, shrews, opossums, gophers, wolves, coyotes, raccoons, weasels, skunks, mountain lions, wildcats.

vance seasons similar to those set in 1949. Commissioners opened the Malibu archery district to the taking of deer with firearms. Hunting with crossbows was outlawed.

No antelope or elk hunting seasons were set for 1950.

The bag limit on bears was reduced from two to one during a season extending from September 16 to December 31. Between September 16 and October 15, no more than one dog will be allowed each bear or deer hunter. Bear trapping is prohibited.

Pursuit of upland game, including pheasants, quail, and tree squirrels, begins generally on Saturday, November 18.

Nimrods must complete their quail hunting on December 15 in northeastern California district 14; November 27 in District 4, except Orange county, and December 31 elsewhere, including Orange county and the southwestern tip of Riverside county. Districts 22 and 4 1/2 were closed to all quail hunting.

Brush and cottontail rabbit hunting begins November 18, except in southern California districts 4, 4 1/2, and 4 3/4, where the season opens September 1. Shooting stops December 15 in district 14, and December 31 elsewhere. The former brush and cottontail bag limit was halved to four a day and four in possession.

On September 1 and 2, hunters may take part in the State's first open sage hen hunting season since 1944. The shoot is limited to portions of Mono county with a maximum bag of two birds.

No changes were made in other upland game seasons, bag limits, or shooting hours.

Effective August 7, the Stanford University deer refuge, 3G, will be opened to hunting. Sportsmen and officials of the Division of Fish and Game charged that State funds are used to patrol the area, which is privately owned. All previous refuge closures remain in effect.

It has been estimated that by 1980, there will be 22 million persons in the United States over 65 years of age.

Birth of a New Shrine Tradition

By Ridgely Cummings

Putting one little word after another and let me tell you about the birth of a new San Francisco tradition, the labor pains of which I witnessed the other evening.

You don't have to be a football fan to enjoy what follows but it will help. As you know, for the past 25 years our town has been the scene of an annual gridiron classic where "strong men run that the weak may walk," in other words the Shrine East-West game.

Although the contest is a sellout each year, with all the tickets snapped up in August for an event that takes place during New Year's week end, the thought came to some of our community leaders that increased civic participation might be arranged and would be a good thing for the game and the cause.

So a group of the guys from the Zane Irwin post of the American Legion and the Touchdown Club got together and on January 24th started something that may well be on the way to becoming an institution.

SHOWED MOVIES
They held a public showing of movies of the game, with some of the players present as honored guests. The result was an entertaining evening and an additional thousand or so boosters for the Shrine Hospital for Cripple Children.

Sports Broadcaster Ernie Smith acted as master of ceremonies and commentator as the film was run off. Ernie covered the first game for a local paper 25 years ago and in recent years has aired the play-by-play description.

Things have changed for the better since that first game. Three athletes of a quarter of a century ago were present to tell the audience about the improvement. Scotchey Campbell, who played halfback Jack Patrick, fullback, and the legendary Brick Muller remembered that in the old days the committee had to issue more than 200 invitations in order to get two teams on the field.

Nowadays players and colleges compete for bids, invitations are an honor and no excess ones are ever extended.

GOOD CROWD
This first public showing was held in the Veterans' auditorium with a minimum of preliminary fanfare. Despite the semi-secrecy, a two-thirds capacity audience turned out, augmented by a number of wounded veterans who had pews down front. I knew about the affair in advance because one day last year I let Ken Fletcher talk me into paying $3 to join the Touchdown Club. Ken is a press agent for a local airline, or I should say for an airline with local offices here. I won't mention that the name is TWA because his business rivals might construe that as a plug.

As a hobby and avocation, Ken was helping on publicity for the Touchdowners, an organization which meets once a week during the season to listen to coaches and players talk about upcoming contests and rehash games just finished. One week Ken invited me to a club luncheon to listen to local sport scribes spill background information on pro football, a hobby of mine, and before I knew it I was a full-fledged member.

The privileges of membership include carrying a green and maroon card signed by E. Jack Spaulding, club president, and receiving through the mail various communications such as the one about the show.

EXCELLENT EDDIE SPEAKS
Among those onstage were Eddie LeBaron, T-quarterback magician from College of Pacific and his pass-catching partner, End John Rohde, Emory Mitchell, Stanford fullback, and Jim Castagnoli, center and linebacker from the Farm. Castagnoli keynoted the theme when he said that faced with the choice of going to Hawaii for a post-season game or playing in the Shrine Bowl "there was never any doubt. I grew up in the Bay Area where the East-West game is rightfully regarded as the biggest football event of the year."

LeBaron, Mitchell and Rohde echoed these sentiments. Tall John Rohde, asked about his future in pro football, said it was up to "the Kid," meaning Eddie LeBaron. Elusive Eddie, who was the outstanding star of the most recent game, being voted the Bill Coffman award, distinguished himself on this occasion by modesty combined with quiet confidence on the speaker's platform. What a bloomer the 49ers pulled in drafting Celeri instead of him!

The movies, by the way, were excellent. The first half was shown in color and was, to coin a phrase,

The new Cub Den No. 16 baseball coach, Al Rosenberg, and new assistant coach, William Tylenka, called the first baseball practice for last Saturday morning at Aptos Jr. High.

There will be another practice session Wednesday morning at the same place. All Cubs of Den 16 are asked to come out and practice as there are three leagues which they may hope to get into. If they are really good, there is the National League, they are tops. If they are good, but not that good, they can get into the American League, and if they are pretty young and just starting out, they can find a place in the Pioneer League. They are all good leagues for a boy and offer him a chance to go up to the top. There will be practice every Saturday morning till the games start in March.

The Cub packs will play against other Cub packs in San Francisco for the championship. Granat Brothers will give a trophy to the best pack. So, Cub Pack 36, get in there and pitch. All your mothers and fathers will be watching, and in there rooting for you too.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Friday, the 24th day of March, 1950, at the hour of two o'clock P.M. of said day on the steps of the Middlefield Road entrance to the County Court House, in Redwood City, County of San Mateo, State of California, the undersigned, The San Francisco Corporation, a California corporation, as trustee, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States of America payable at the time of sale, the following described real property situated in the County of San Mateo, State of California:

LOT 92, as designated on the map entitled "TRACT NO. 547 BROADMOOR VILLAGE IN UNINCORPORATED TERRITORY, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF.", which map was filed in the office of the Recorder of the County of San Mateo, State of California, on November 21, 1945, in Book 24 of Maps at pages 74 and 75.

Said sale will be made to satisfy the obligations secured by, and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in and by a certain deed of trust executed by RAYMOND L. DEMO and MARCELLA C. DEMO, his wife, as Trustors, to E. T. KRUSE and PARKER S. MADDOX, as Trustees for the benefit and security of The San Francisco Bank, a corporation, as Beneficiary, dated January 2, 1947, and recorded on January 9, 1947, in the office of the Recorder of the County of San Mateo, State of California, in Volume 1385 of Official Records at Page 405, under which said deed of trust said The San Francisco Corporation has been duly and regularly substituted as Trustee.

Notice of defaults in and breaches of said obligations and of the election of said beneficiary to cause said real property to be sold was recorded in the office of the Recorder of the said County of San Mateo, on January 24, 1949, in Volume 1616 of Official Records at page 171, to which said record reference is hereby made.

This notice is given in compliance with a demand heretofore made on the undersigned Trustee by said Beneficiary.

A beautiful sight to see. The second half was shot in black and white because the fading light of late afternoon had made color film impossible.

The show was a fine idea and I hope it catches on and takes over the Civic Auditorium next year. Among those responsible for its success, in addition to those mentioned above, were Jack Spaulding, Bill Coffman, Michael Patrick Brennan and Irving Bill Barnes. The first two are Shrineers and the last two American Legionnaires. Hats off and pants pockets out to these crusaders in a worthy cause.

The Fathers and Sons dinner last Friday, the 17th, was well attended and greatly enjoyed by the Cubs and their fathers. The dinner was reported to be very tasty and the moving pictures after the dinner made such a hit with the Cubs that they didn't want to leave, so reports Al Rosenberg.

Mrs. William Tylenka will be a new assistant Den Mother now, too. Den 16 has grown so big that it was necessary to handle the overflow somewhere else, and Mrs. Tylenka, who has three boys of her own, has agreed to take these extra boys. Good luck, Mrs. Tylenka.

The next meeting of Den 16 will be Thursday, February 23.

NEW CONGREGATIONAL COMMUNITY CHURCH

This is the new church to be built soon to house the congregation of the Ocean View Congregational Community church. Only the first section, including the sanctuary and recreational hall, is to be constructed at a cost of approximately $55,000. At a later date the second section will be built. Work will begin in April and the church will be completed by fall. Serving many Daly City families, the structure is to be located at Randolph and Russell streets, Merced Heights.

New Community Church Building To Go Up Soon

Construction on the first section of a $100,000 Congregational Community church will begin early this spring, The Rev. J. H. Bennett said today.

Expected to be completed by the fall of 1950, the $55,000 sanctuary will be built on Randolph and Russell streets, Merced Heights, to house the congregation now attending the Ocean View church at 146 Broad street.

Much of the work on the sanctuary will be done by men of the congregation, thus cutting the cost down to around $45,000, Rev. Bennett said. The announcement that work will begin soon follows a two-year campaign to raise funds for the house of worship. Just last week, the church building committee was loaned $20,000 and given $10,000 for the project by the Building Society of New York.

In addition to the sanctuary there will be a fellowship hall which will be under the main structure. This is to be employed as a general social meeting place and incorporate a modern kitchen, stage and so forth.

When completed the sanctuary will have a capacity of 216, approximately 100 feet long, and designed along the lines of the California Mission plan. At some future date there will be a church educational building constructed to one side of the sanctuary. This will house all grades, as well as recreational rooms.

Meanwhile, the 11 a.m. sermon his Sunday will be "The Secret," Sunday school will be held at 9:45

Runaway Car Scores A Hit

Resting in a garage for repairs today is a 1949 sedan, "victim" of a runaway car on Brunswick street at 2 p.m. Tuesday.

Ardath A. Lee, 1338 Underwood avenue, San Francisco, parked in front of 1257 Brunswick. A few minutes later the machine bounded over the curb and ran down the hill where it struck the 1949 model. Owner of the damaged car is Alice M. Volkman, 792 Jenevein avenue, San Bruno. Her vehicle was parked in front of 1213 Brunswick.

The San Bruno machine will need repairs on its right front fender, headlights and grille. The runaway car sustained a bent front right fender.

Police cited Lee for failure to make a proper hill hold.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Man And Groceries Traffic "Victims"

(Note: Those who agree or disagree with the following citizens are requested to let other readers know via a Letter to the Editor.)

This week several residents in Daly City were asked:

"What is your chief gripe concerning your community?"

Herewith are the answers:

Mrs. Lydia Talbot, 244 Westlake — What bothers me, and many of my neighbors, is the liberty certain persons take in burning rubbish and trash. It's gotten so you can hardly put out a wash, no matter what soap you use, without bringing it in full of soot. I believe the city should establish some definite time for bonfires, thus giving the housewife a fighting chance.

Mrs. Parker Leininger, 151 Bellevue — What I'd like to see are more playgrounds and parks in Daly City so all the children could benefit. (Mrs. Leininger said she was aware of the $101,000 park program, and thought this was a step in the right direction.)

Mrs. Charles Buck, 27 Cliffside drive — At the present time there is no bus service in Westlake. Consequently in order to catch a bus we must spend $1 for taxi fare to take us to the nearest bus stop. I want to know when we are going to get adequate bus service in Westlake?

John Macaulay, 844 Wildwood avenue — Running behind Wildwood avenue in Broadmoor is a large ditch filled with water. The ditch is a potential menace, as many small children play around the area, and may fall in at any time. When are they going to drain the ditch or fill it in?

W. A. Clarke, 940 Wildwood — I have the same complaint as Mr. Macaulay. Something should be done about that ditch before one work.

Recovering today from minor cuts and bruises he suffered when struck by a car Friday is John Rehe, 19, 149 Wilson street, police report.

The young man was crossing Mission at Crocker at 5:15 p.m., his arms loaded with groceries, when a car driven by Deno Agresti, 2, 19, 149 Wilson street, police report.

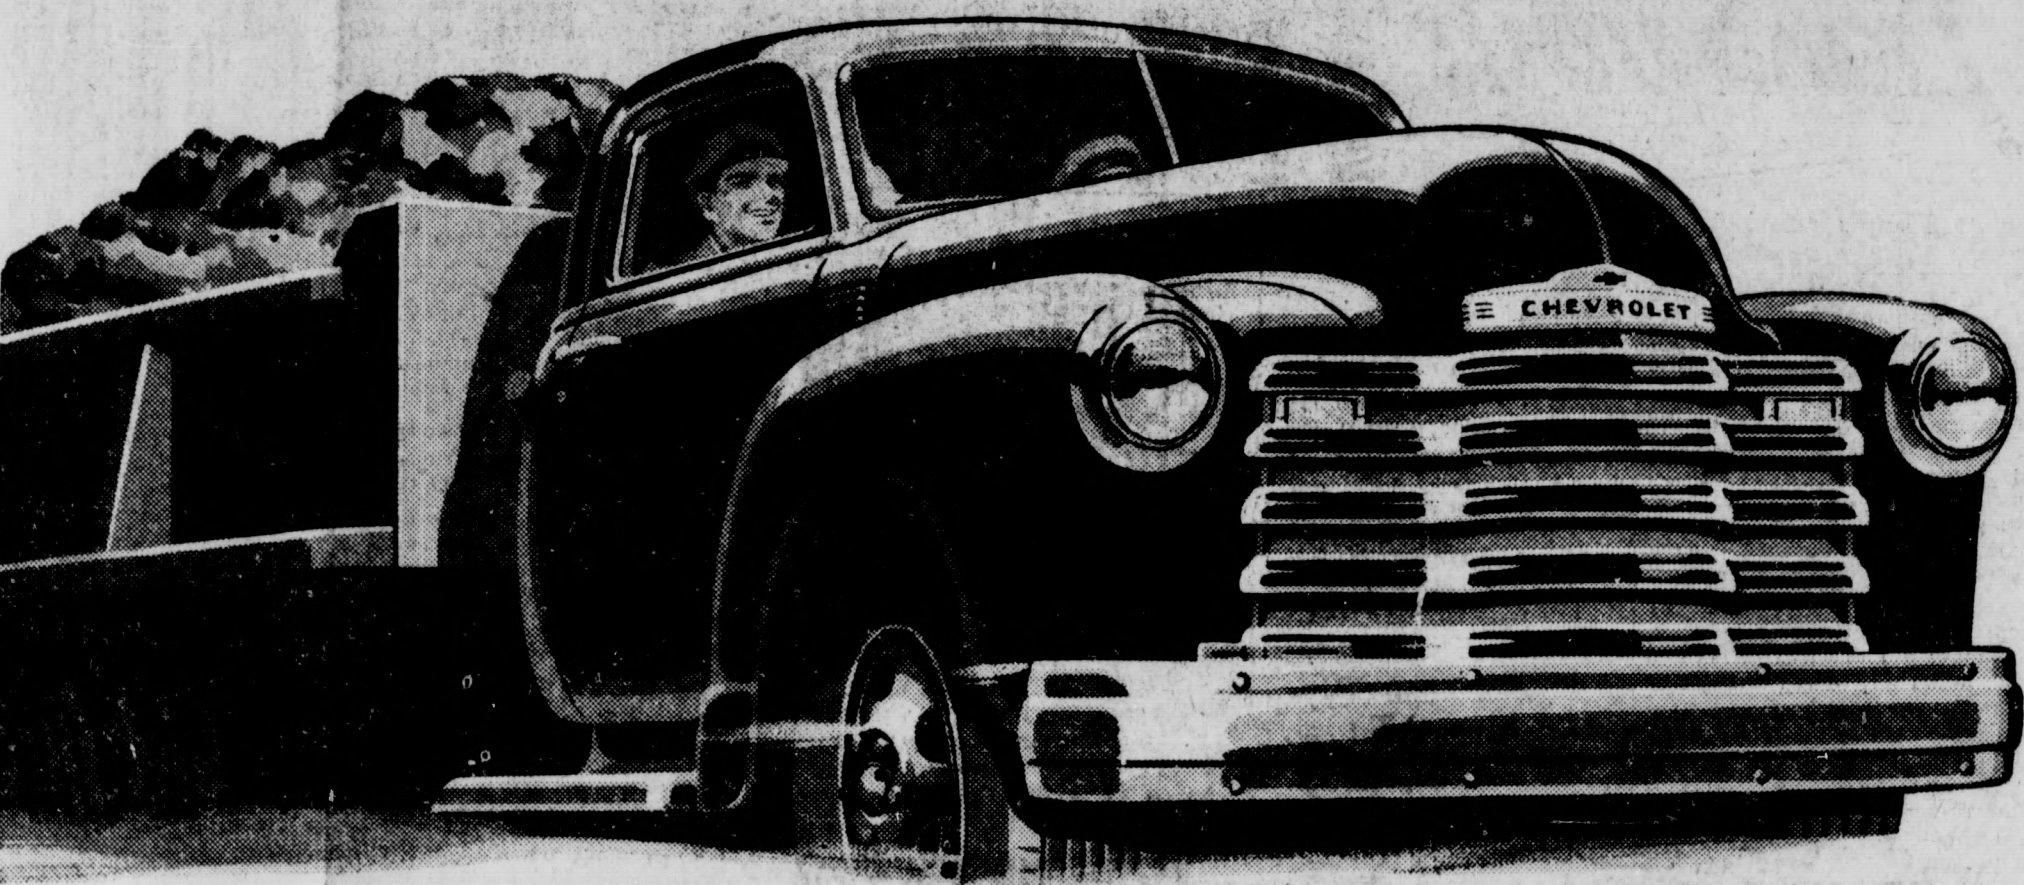

Agresti stopped his car and assisted Rehe to his feet. However, there was no salvaging the groceries, which had spilled over the street. Agresti paid for the food, police indicate, then climbed back into his machine and drove away. Rehe suffered a cut hand and bruises on his right shin.

of the children in the community is killed.

Mrs. Leonard DeMartini, 48 Cliffside drive — I'm new to the community, and I'm now beginning to realize the stigma attached to the name of Daly City. It appears to be a harbor for all San Francisco hoodlums. I believe the police should clean out the town, and then change the name so we can get a fresh start. I'm sure this is the opinion of many other mothers living in Westlake.

Leone Hensley, 372 Santa Barbara — I haven't any real complaint to make. In fact, I'd like to pay James Snell, superintendent of schools, a compliment. Ever since he has been in office, the children of Woodrow Wilson school have been behaving much better and have seemed happier than ever before. I think Mr. Snell is to be complimented for his work.

Tom Bocci Heads SSF Red Cross Fund Drive

Tom Bocci, Daly City attorney and candidate for Justice of the Peace, will head the Red Cross campaign drive in South City.

Quota for the neighbors to the south is $12,000 as compared with $2,000 for Daly City.

When contacted, Bocci stated that he will conduct the drive aiming at full cooperation between Daly City and South San Francisco.

"I hope to meet the quota, with the thought in mind that all funds collected in the First Township will go for the good of all peoples in South San Francisco, Colma and the Daly City area," Bocci said.

"I will cooperate to the utmost with the Red Cross campaign in Daly City."

Assisting Bocci in South City will be Mrs. Maurice Oliva, Mrs. Jessie Adler, Vic Robinson and Ray Stevens.

Cars Collide On Mission Street

Back on the highway today are two cars that suffered damages in an accident at Mission near Templeton last Thursday at 2:30 p.m.

Drivers of the two cars were: Howard Hansen, 55, 778 Templeton, and Francesco Continola, 69, 3310 Alemany boulevard. Both men were coming south on Mission when Hansen assertedly made a turn into Templeton.

At that point, the two vehicles collided, ending in a dent in the right rear side of Continola's machine and a smashed left front fender for Hansen.

Korny Kopy Grand Winners Are Announced

All over but the shouting of happy winners today was the Korny Kopy PIP shampoo limerick contest.

After examining all entries over the past five weeks, judges came up with these winners:

Mrs. Keith Swanson, 226 Hillside boulevard.

Mrs. Florence Carbone, 31 Werners avenue.

Mrs. L. S. Martinelli, 7 E. Market street.

Mrs. Virginia Alexander, 348 Winchester street.

Mrs. Mimi Clarke, 222 Los Olivos.

Within the next few days a representative of the PIP shampoo company will deliver each of the ladies a full year's supply of the marvelous hair wash.

PIP and the Daly City Record (co-sponsors of the contest) wish to thank all those who entered, and hope the losers will have better luck next time.

CONSTRUCTION ON CARMEL VALLEY HIGHWAY NECESSITATES DETOUR

Construction on the Carmel Valley Highway between Carmel and Robles del Rio necessitates a two-mile detour, reports L. L. Norris, director of touring for the National Automobile Club. The detour is paved but has grades up to twelve per cent, is quite winding, and necessitates slow and careful driving. The balance of the route is in fair to good condition.

The most complete collection of bookplates in the United States is among the rarities of the library of the San Francisco College for Women.

Mother And Baby Care Classes To Begin March 1st

The Home Nursing Service of the San Mateo County Chapter of the American Red Cross will start its second class of the year in "Mother and Baby Care" on Wednesday, March 1.

Classes are from 10 to 12 a.m. every Wednesday and Friday for three weeks. Miss Glendora Goodhue, a registered nurse, is the teacher. Reservations for the class which accommodates about 20 may be made by calling the Red Cross Chapter House where the classes will be held, Diamond 3-4561. "Mother and Baby Care" classes are always full.

Home Nursing gives five of them a year. Expectant mothers are trained in the proper care of an infant by actual demonstration and experience. Life size dolls are used to represent babies. The mother-to-be gains knowledge which enables her to care for her own baby when it arrives with confidence. The motto of these classes is turn "know how" into "show how."

Broadmoor Sewing Classes Now Open

Sewing classes, both elementary and advanced are now being conducted by the Broadmoor Community Presbyterian Church, Ladies Auxiliary Circle No. 1.

The classes are held each Thursday under the direction of Mrs. Harry D. Lapp.

Advanced classes cover pattern drafting, slip covering, and tailoring.

All money from the instruction is employed to assist the Broadmoor church.

Further information on the classes may be obtained by calling Mrs. John Faust, JUniper 7-9473.

Catholic Doctrine Lectures Begin

A series of lectures on Catholic Doctrine begins Monday, February 28, 8 p.m. at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church.

There will be five lectures delivered by Thomas J. Bowe, doctor of canon law. The talks are directed at both non-Catholics and Catholics.

Father Bowe, who is attached to the Archbishop's staff will present the following subjects: February 28, "Our Duties to God's Way"; March 7, "God's Church Is One"; March 14, "God's Church Is Holy"; March 21, "God's Church Is Catholic"; March 28, "God's Church Is Apostolic."

In addition, special lenten services will include Mass each morning at 6:30 and 7:30. Evening devotions will be held Tuesdays and Fridays at 8. For children there will be Stations of the Cross and Benediction Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A cordial invitation to attend the lectures as well as Lenten services is extended to all of the people of Daly City.

Answer this question and receive a three months FREE subscription to the Daly City Record.

The first three persons to phone in the right answer will win the subscriptions. Merely call JUniper 7-4321.

There are no strings attached, nothing to buy. We merely wish to acquaint you with your weekly newspaper, the Daly City Record. The answer will be found on this page.

Last week's winners were: Mrs. F. Harder, 64 Los Olivos; Mrs. O. L. Nesbit, 198 Los Olivos and John H. Adams, 138 Santa Cruz.

San Mateo County Men To Attend CMT Meeting

First regular meeting of the 1950 Board of Directors of the California Mission Trails Association will be held on Wednesday, February 22, at the Paso Robles Inn in Paso Robles, according to Edwin L. Catry, recently elected president of the association.

Representatives of all ten coastal counties are included on the board. Those from San Mateo county are: Fred Bertetta and Hugh H. Smith Jr., Daly City; W. S. Biber, San Carlos; T. Louis Chess and Martin A. Poss, San Mateo; Norman J. Corlett, Burlingame; Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch, Half Moon Bay; and A. V. Swift, Redwood City.

Principal business of the session will be the appointment of standing committees which sponsor various phases of the Association's activities in bringing more travel business into the area.

WRONG FOOT

Don't get off on the wrong foot by jaywalking at the risk of your life, urges the California State Automobile Association. Always use crosswalks provided for pedestrian safety, and always obey traffic signals.

Near San Francisco in Muir Woods and Santa Cruz Redwood Park are trees from 1,000 to 2,000 years old.

Stanislaus county was created in 1854 by cutting it off from the mountain district of Tuolumne county.

About four million persons visited the 50 national parks and monuments in the United States in 1949.

ALWAYS GIVE SIGNALS

Be sure that your own hand signals are positive and precise and not like those of the driver ahead whose signals or lack of them you are criticizing, advises the National Automobile Club. Also keep in the right lane of travel as much as possible. Making turns across a stream of moving traffic is one of the worst driving practices.

Lagamarsino Takes Out Bldg. Permits

Plans to construct eight five-room homes on First avenue in the Garden Valley Land project were announced this week by William Lagomarsino, 7100 Mission.

Lagamarsino received a building permit from the city for this work, valued at a total of $61,600. This was the largest single permit issued during the week.

Other permits issued also went to Lagomarsino for three five-room homes between 169 and 177 Santa Cruz avenue at a total cost of $23,100. Ricco Lagomarsino was granted a permit to put up a single, $7,700 five-room home at

COSTLY TOLL

Modern high speed automobiles when driven at immoderate speed take a terrible toll of life and property, points out the California State Automobile Association, urging drivers to use speed wisely and temperately for safety's sake.

THIS WORLD

For speed, power and design, many of the new cars are "out of this world." Unfortunately, that will also hold true for drivers who fail to use this speed and power wisely, observes the California State Automobile Association, urging motorists to keep within safe speed limits at all times.

Two SF Men Take Up Jail Residence

Taking quick action on two cases of theft in Daly City recently, Judge W. J. Sweeney sentenced two men to 30 and 90 days, respectively, at police court Thursday.

Louis L. Richards, 37, 577 South Van Ness, pleaded guilty to petty theft and innocent to vagrancy. Judge Sweeney sentenced him to 90 days, and held the vagrancy charge in abeyance. Richards was charged with stealing a steam iron from the Daly City Hardware store.

Ronald Becker, 20, 130 Lippard street, San Francisco, pleaded guilty to breaking into the Jefferson High school cafeteria, and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail. The burglary was committed February 6, when Becker broke open a door to get some candy and ice cream.

TOO MUCH ECONOMY

Although it is not a sin of which many motorists are guilty, there is such a thing as overdoing the economy of a lean carburetor mixture, according to the National Automobile Club. Beyond a certain point it is bound to result in a loss of power. Moreover, the chances of backfiring are increased with the greater likelihood of causing a fire if the engine is covered with an oily waste in the vicinity of the carburetor.

Season Closes
For Some Fishing

Angling for several popular species of California fishes comes to an end Tuesday, February 28, says the Division of Fish and Game.

Sunfish, crappie, black bass, and Sacramento perch go on the out-of-season list until April 29 in Big Bear, Arrowhead, and Gregory lakes, and in all counties north of Mono, Madera, Fresno, Kings, and San Luis Obispo counties. There is no closed season elsewhere or in Clear Lake.

Winter steelhead trout and salmon fishing ends in all State streams one hour after sunset, February 28. Effective March 1, year-round salmon angling is legal in the Pacific Ocean and all bays except those in the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers east of the Carquinez Bridge.

COAST HIGHWAY OFFERS
SCENIC DRIVE

Few motorists realize that State Route 1, the very scenic Coast Highway between San Francisco and Santa Cruz, requires but little longer to drive than some of the more direct routes. It is paved throughout and the stretches where it is a little narrow and somewhat winding are few and short.

There are, according to L. L. Norris, director of touring for the National Automobile Club, numerous attractive beaches and many interesting little hamlets and towns along the route for supplies, and each turn of the highway brings forth a new and beautiful panorama vista of the coastline.

BOY ELECTRIFIES FARM—After running the gamut of 16-year-old Johnny Williams' dusting and counting machine, gladiolus bulbs are carried up by belt conveyor and dumped onto the screen in foreground. Lenten Services Open At Church

Midweek Lenten services are conducted at Bethel Lutheran church, Alemany boulevard and Huron avenue, every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The subject of the meditations cover the sufferings of Jesus Christ from the Garden of Gethsemane to the cross of Calvary. Next Wednesday the Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder will speak on the subject: "Infinite Sorrow."

The messages at the Sunday morning services which begin at 10:45 o'clock, also pertain to the Lenten theme. Their purpose is to enrich the spiritual life of the individual, to live in harmony with the will of God, and to be strengthened to meet the burdens of life as well as its joys.

The pastor will preach on the subject: "Satanic Wiles." Appropriate music is rendered by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Petersen.

Reserves Wanted For "Fir Tree" Army Division

Openings in virtually all branches of the service are now available in the organized reserve for men 17 to 35 years of age, the Ninety-first Infantry Division reported today.

The division is conducting an intensified recruiting drive through February to enlist qualified men who desire to earn extra pay and accumulate retirement benefits.

The famed "Fir Tree" outfit of World Wars I and II is California's only organized army reserve division with units in San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose.

Headquarters is at the Presidio of San Francisco.

Reserve members of the division receive a full day's pay for each drill night meeting attend. A master sergeant earns up to $9.80 for each meeting; a corporal up to $6.35.

In addition, reservists may attend a voluntary two weeks' summer camp at full pay, besides receiving travel and clothing allowances. This year — in July — the encampment will be at Fort Lewis, Washington.

Attractive retirement benefits provide a reservist and his family with added old age security upon completion of 20 years' satisfactory service.

Full details may be obtained from the Unit Instructor, Ninety-first Infantry Division, Building T-909, Presidio of San Francisco. Telephone West 1-6111, extension 4424.

HAVE PUMP TESTED

Automobile fuel pumps deteriorate gradually. Pump linkage becomes worn and the pump diaphragm becomes cracked or frayed on the edges, reducing efficiency of the pump. Whenever hard starting becomes noticeable, the fuel pump should be examined for efficiency, advises the California

State Automobile Association. Practically all garages have gauges for the purpose of quickly testing fuel pumps.

Farmers Insurance Purchases Bonds

The Farmers Insurance Group has purchased $160,000 of the $1,625,000 San Mateo County Tuberculosis Hospital bonds, it was announced today.

"Ninety-seven and one-half percent of the Farmers Insurance Group capital investments are securely placed in similar high-grade community bonds," Walter Rector, Daly City district agent for Farmers, declared.

"This investment policy gives maximum protection to over a million policy holders and permits the further social and economic development of many progressive communities in this area."

Your Daly City Garden News

by Elsie M. Garrison

There are few people who are not pleasantly impressed by the beauties of nature, as evidenced in beautiful flowers, trees, shrubs and all growing things.

So many homemakers, with a good measure of ground surrounding or adjacent to their homes, shake their heads sadly, and deplore their lack of ability in matters horticultural. Others will frankly tell you that they have neither the time nor money to indulge in such an expensive pursuit: they are scared away by the seemingly endless listings of "gardening needs" set out in some circulars. One friend, whose name is entitled to more superior company than the weeds and straggly lawn it must put up with, is over-awed by the terms and phrases of which she has no qualified knowledge. "hybrid," "biennials," pruning and grafting just seem to leave her, she says, "a little guilty she cut her botany classes in school." The long names of some do not help either. These impressions, to name a few, are mistaken in their concept of gardening.

As in any other hobby, one should be fortified with elementary knowledge, and a few basic tools, in order to get into the swing of things. During the late war, many women learned the value of proper equipment. The possession of a monkey wrench, and on leaky faucets—a steam iron, and accessories, result: a "professional press."

EQUIPMENT NEEDED
The gardener with a spray, healthy flowers and plants, untouched by the unmerciful barrage of pests and fungus. In other words, proper equipment equals maximum success. The long lists of preparations on the market means only that seedmen and nurserymen have made it possible to vegetate flowers in ANY soil, under many adverse conditions. Lucky natives of this area may need nothing but an insecticide, and have good results.

A little experience, and the addition of one or two preparations, and you will have astounding displays, which explain the value of chemical knowledge. From then on, the ends justify the means, and it is child's play, with a deep psychological advantage. While it's true, that in gardening as in no other hobby, "necessity is the mother of invention, and substitutions can be made, the best way to begin is the right way.

In order of their importance you should have as follows:

1. Gardening gloves to fit YOU.
2. Hoe, rake and shovel.
3. Trowel.
4. Watering can (utilitarian type).

Optional is a box of all-purpose insecticide, spray gun, ball of twine and scissors and stakes.

WHY GLOVES?
You may wonder why I list gloves in first place, because many gardeners do not use them. However, one of the chief objects of the amateur gardener is to achieve beautiful effects by the cleanest, easiest method. The office worker or bank teller will find little solace in his bulb garden if his soil-stained hands evoke any comment. The modern hostess can find no adequate excuse for rough or red hands or stained cuticle. The housewife and mother has no time to scrub her hands before stirring the stew or lifting the baby. The consistent use of gloves simplifies the transition from gardening to any other endeavor, and also makes the amateur less squeamish about the accidental handling of bugs or insects. The shovel, hoe and rake are standard to prepare the soil into a smooth, workable bed. The trowel is for planting and loosening, and the watering can will save many steps and time.

With this modest list of accoutrements one can become a full-fledged gardener. It goes without saying that the enthusiast will keep in the good graces of the household by wearing old shoes while working, which he will leave at the back DOOR. Most wives and some husbands like flowers outside but do not wish them to germinate in the mud traipsed into their carpets.

GARDEN ATTITUDE

The gardening attitude must be first engendered by a little "spade work." This means several preparatory excursions, depending on area, and the amount of "elbow grease" necessary to cultivate properly. Then you are already for the satisfying part of the job. In some areas that would mean the planting of the seed, but here in Daly City we are all within walking distance of a nursery where the best of bedding plants may be obtained at a very inconsequential sum. It is my opinion that the novice gets more gratifying results with the bedding plants. For one thing, he can see something for his labor, and watch immediate progress. Then, too, there is less chance of failure, or the possibility, in hilly locations of the seed being washed away by a hard rain.

If possible, it is advisable to make a sketch of your property, showing north, south, east and west in true proportion, so that the nurseryman can advise you which flowers will go best in each exposure. You will be pleasantly surprised at the interest the nurseryman will take in your garden. If you visit him at a reasonable time, you will learn a good deal. His experience will stand you in good stead. A horticulturist and nurseryman has to love his work to do it. Who else would undergo the unpredictable nature of the elements? Or the intricacies of chemicals? Or the disappointments of unexplainable failures? Back of all the formulas and techniques of today, which are successful, are the painstaking efforts of the scientific

D. C. Teachers To Attend Classes

In keeping with the policy established by Henry Hall, assistant county school superintendent, opportunity for improving teaching techniques in the use of modern school equipment is being offered to a selected group of teachers in the Jefferson, South San Francisco and San Bruno elementary schools in the form of a course in audio-visual education.

The class meets every Thursday evening in the Thornton School home economics room and the teachers are busily engaged in studying motion picture films, running projectors, making and using husbandman. He will be a real friend to you.

slides, recording machines, making and using records, tape recordings and radio transcriptions.

The course made possible on a cooperative basis between the local superintendent of schools, James L. Snell, and County Superintendent Miss Pansy J. Abbot is under the immediate direction of Lorin Miller, audio-visual director of San Mateo county and has 29 teachers enrolled. All materials and equipment being used is available either through the county and local schools.

Teachers from Daly City taking the class are: Hester Blaylock, Thornton; Virginia Bolstad, Woodrow Wilson; Margaret Clarke, General Pershing; Hazel Colwell, Thornton; Henrietta Engel, General Pershing; Genevieve Gannon, Jefferson; Grace Kearney, Crocker; Alma Ledwith, Jefferson; Dorothy Lickly, General Pershing; Elizabeth Mertens, Jefferson; Louise Plumb, Crocker; Jeanette Snell, none; Hortense Sundman, Jefferson; Marie Traynor, teaching principal, Jefferson; Mae Varni, Woodrow Wilson.

The course is fully accredited by San Francisco State College.
